It's the First 'Big Game' Time For M-A Gridders Tomorrow

By DENNIS ANDERSON

Menlo - Atherton high school will get its first crack at neighboring Sequoia high Varsity football-wise tomorrow evening in Redwood City.

Varsity grid teams from the schools vie at Terremere field in Redwood (on the Sequoia campus) beginnig at 8:15 p. m. Granted clear skies and not-too-cold weather, a capacity crowd is expected.

Coach Howard Costello's Menlo-Atherton gridders are in their best physical shape of the campaign, except for their first three games, and are in better mental shape than for some time having stopped San Mateo's high-powered offense cold on several occasions last week and having marched easily against the Mateans before bowing, 26-6, on some timely passes.

SORT OF A 'CRUCIAL'

There will be little at stake as far as Peninsula Athletic league prominence is concerned as both clubs have posted 1-4 loop records and are just one step away from the cellar.

However, the contest is crucial so far as the individual schools are concerned.

Much of the importance built around the game stems from a statement made by Sequoia's director of physical education, Frank Griffin, before M-A opened. Grif-

Re-Canvass Set To Help Lagging Chest Drive Here

Menlo Park's Community Chest drive, which to date has seen collection of 77.7 per cent of its $23,800 quota, has been extended to allow collection of more funds.

This was announced last week by Fred Walker, drive chairman for the city. He added, meanwhile, that there was one bright spot in the picture: the professional division of the drive here has collected 102.2 per cent of its quota.

Thus far, contributions in this area show, in Menlo Park, $18,483.35; Atherton, $18,583.57; East Palo Alto, $1391.16; Woodside, $2014.93. All have collected about 80 per cent of their drive quotas with the exception of East Palo Alto, where only 64 per cent of the funds called for in the drive have been collected.

Meanwhile, Walker said, area chairmen are reorganizing their workers here, to re-canvass their areas in an effort to contact persons who have not yet been seen.

These include those who, as commuters, contibuted to San Francisco's United Crusade. The Crusade "definitely hurt" fundraising here, according to Walker.

The city drive chairman points out that although pledge cards used in the San Francisco drive called for information on what county the contributor lived in, this did not mean that any of the money collected would be returned to San Mateo county.

New reports on funds collected were due as the Recorder went to press last night.

Atherton Police

In NEW 'HOME'

Atherton police will be firmly ensconced in their new station this Saturday, according to Police Chief Leroy Hubbard. The finished product, across the street from Atherton town hall, will be open for public inspection all day Saturday.

Today, representatives from 13 police stations on the Peninsula will hold a tour of inspection through the new Atherton station, furniture for which is due to arrive this morning.

If Rallies Help, Bears Cant Lose to Sequoia

By MELINDA PERCY

If the Menlo-Atherton Bears don't beat the Sequoia Cherokees tomorrow night it won't be the fault of the rally committee and commissioner of school spirit at M-A!

Intensive preparations for tomorrow afternoon's rally, an evening car caravan, and other spirit-producing events have been going on for some time with Commish Pete Block heading the newly-formed rally committee.

The rally will be held tomorrow afternoon in the multi - purpose room at the school with two seniors, Dave Larson and Jim O'Niel, acting as masters of ceremonies. "Playlets," such as a mock football game between M-A and Sequoia and the chasing of the Sequoia Indian, identity unknown, by the M-A Bear, identity also unrevealed, will be highlights of the program.

SPEAKERS

The coaches and co-captains of the team will each speak and of course, many yells will be given for the team led by Jeanenne Brown, Marian Fitzgerald, Wilma Sprinkle, and Sue Furbush. "The Jumping Jacks," an amateur band formed by Roy Jacopetti, a 1952 graduate of M-A, will also play a few numbers.

Teachers will be given maroon and gold corsages to wear tomorrow, while "Color Day" and "Dink Day" will be proclaimed as the students wear their "dink" hats and appropriate colors.

Each classroom door window will have yellow numbers set in maroon maple leaves to further add to the color.

The car caravan, which has proved very successful in the past, will be ready to roll at 7 p. m. tomorrow in front of the school under the direction of Tom Fitch.

Faculty advisors are William Lavin and George Egan, language and commercial teachers, respectively.

INDIAN SKELETON FOUND

"It BETTER BE AN INDIAN"—Anthropologists at Stanford university this week came a step closer to piecing together the ancient history of the upper Menlo Park area as a result of the discovery by a ditch digging crew of an almost complete Indian skeleton under Arbor road. Inspector William (Bud) Kieler of the Menlo Park police (homicide dept.), is pictured above examining the remains before they were turned over to university authorities, who later established identity of the bones and found other ancient materials at the site. —Recorder photo.

Bones of Prehistoric Menlo Park Resident Hailed as 'Important Find' by Stanford Prof

Bone remains of a male Indian, which possibly date to 1000 AD or the post-Christian era, were discovered last Thursday on Arbor road near Cambridge avenue.

The discovery is the first made of any Indian habitation near the San Francisquito creek-Allied Arts guild area of Menlo Park since 1920 when the renowned Stanford Skull was unearthed from the creek's bank by the late Bailey Willis, former geologist at Stanford.

Ditch digging equipment, operated by the McQuire and Hester company of Oakland, uncovered the bones three feet below the pavement of Arbor road. The company is laying the new storm drains in that area.

Until this find, the Stanford Skull was believed to have been from a much earlier period, but Bert A. Gerow, assistant professor of anthropology at Stanford who investigated the site last weekend, told the Recorder that the recent find may have been remains of an Indian from the same occupational site as the Stanford Skull.

Gerow, who now has the bones in his possession, said they "definitely" are those of a male Indian, between the age of 30 and 40 years.

Investigating the site later with the assistance of a graduate student, Professor Gerow also found a three-inch-long obsidian "point," animal bones and shell "diet remains," which led to the occupational site conclusion.

An obsidian "point," according to Professor Gerow, is not necessarily an arrow head, although the shape is similar.

Gerow said it might have been used for a knife or a drill. It is made of a type of volcanic glass.

No pottery was expected to be found, since early Indian tribes in this area did not use it. Their containers were baskets, which decayed

New Community Center Building Drive Planned

Construction of a community center building in Menlo Park is first of a list of long-range projects adopted by the playgrounds and recreation committee of the Menlo Park Chamber of Commerce and approved by the chamber directors in a breakfast meeting Tuesday.

Committee Chairman James R. Ferguson presented to the board a report formulated in recent committee sessions which outlined a general policy and stated eight specific aims of the group.

Statement of the committee's general policy is as follows:

"To work with the Menlo Park Recreation Commission; to be informed on parks and playgrounds as they are related to Menlo Park; to support or sponsor events and attractions that bring visitors to Menlo Park; to cooperate with other organizations and agencies in promotion of special events and attractions."

SITE AVAILABLE

In taking on the task of coordinating a program to raise funds for the construction of a community center building, the committee pointed out that the city government has indicated it will donate land for such a structure in the civic center area along Alma street.

Some funds already have been collected and others were offered last year in an effort to launch such a project. Proposed drawings of such a building also are available from the former drive.

The building would serve as a meeting place and public hall for the many civic and special-interest groups now functioning in the Menlo Park area.

Other specific aims listed by the

'15 mph' Means What It Says

Atherton police of late have been putting "teeth" into their 15-mile-per-hour school zone ordinances.

As proof of this, 20 speed offenders were brought before Atherton Police Judge John Dinkelspiel Monday night, and were told by the judge that he was going to be doubly tough on offenders from now on. As it was, many of the speeders paid fines.

According to Atherton Police Chief Leroy Hubbard, his men are "cracking down" at all eight school zones within the town.

A special problem has been raised at Las Lomitas, where sessions continue from 7:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. and Hubbard warns all motorists driving in the vicinity to be cautious of kindergarten through sixth grade children leaving for home during the dusk hour.

Atherton police have discovered that two-thirds of the accidents occurring in their town resulted from speeding, many of them during the immediate post-sunset period.

With an Echo of Silver Jubilee

Santa Claus to Arrive Here Dec. 4

Santa Claus will open Menlo Park's Christmas season on Thursday, Dec. 4.

At 7 p. m. that evening the kindly old man from the North Pole will parade down Santa Cruz avenue and turn on the lights of the city's Christmas street decorations.

He will be accompanied on his triumphal ride by the Menlo-Atherton high school band, a Marine corps' band, a Navy marching unit, baton twirling youngsters, mounted horsemen, and members of the Menlo Park police department and the Menlo Park Fire District.

Along the route of march, he and his helpers will give out candy to all children spectators.

LINK WITH JUBILEE

When the lights go on, part of the Christmas decorations will provide a link to the recent celebration of Menlo Park's 25th anniversary as an incorporated city.

The silver garlands now strung across Santa Cruz avenue in recognition of the city's Silver Jubilee will become the foundation for the Yuletide decorations, when red bells, wreaths and lights are added to them, according t oMilton Sheldrick of the Merchants Christmas Steering committee.

Along the sides of the street will be Santa Claus and Christmas-tree plaques and a large community Christmas tree will be set up at the corner of Santa Cruz avenue and El Camino Real, Sheldrick said.

Members of the steering committee handling decorations this year are Dale Frane, Jerry Jacobs, D. H. van de Sande, and Sheldrick.

JAYCEES' PARADE

The parade is being arranged by a committee of the Menlo-Atherton Junior Chamber of Commerce under the chairmanship of John Quimby.

Las Lomitas to Vote on $186,000 Bond Measures Tomorrow

Voters of the Las Lomitas School District will go to the polls tomorrow, to cast ballots on whether the district may bond itself for $186,000. Polls will be open from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. at the school.

Actually, the voting will call for two measures: The approval of sale of $111,000 in bonds to finance the immediate start of construction of four new classrooms and an additional $75,000, to be sold when the district's valuation increases.

If passed, the new bond issue will increase the school agency's bonded indebtedness to the legal limit — five per cent of the district's assessed valuation.

Las Lomitas district will thus become eligible for additional state aid for more building, in keeping with provisions of Proposition 24, passed in the Nov. 4 general elections.

The bond issue has received the formal endorsements of the Las Lomitas P-TA, according to President Mrs. Leonard Schiff, and the Ladera Community association.

Meanwhile, District Superintendent Lawrence J. Fuller reports, the district's new Ladera school will be finished by late spring. But even with these added classrooms, the district will be forced to keep 16 first-to-eighth grade classes on double session next year, unless the bond issue passes.

Meanwhile, as date of the election neared, members of a citizens' committee for the bond issue completed work designed to acquaint all residents of the area with the need for passage.

held at the Park theater at 2 p.m. Dec. 24.

Admission to the theater party will be free with tickets that can be secured for the asking from merchants in all shopping centers of the Menlo Park area. The tickets will be available after Dec. 1, Quimby said.

Funds for the parade and for the decorating program are being raised by the merchants group.

Chamber Looks to Christmas, 1953, Explains Bobble in This Year's Plans

Looking ahead to 1953, Chamber of Commerce President L. L. Johnston this week issued a letter to the Chamber's membership, explaining dislocations in this year's Christmas decorations program, and outlining some of the measures contemplated to keep the same thing from happening again.

There will be decorations and a "welcome Santa" program this year.

"First," Johnston's letter says "we allocated $10 from each member's annual dues, last year, to finance the decorating . . ." but the chamber spent $2700—"considerably more" than $10 per member.

"The cost of operating a program of general community betterment . . . does not permit budgeting almost a third of the organization's revenue for one annual program . . . No other Chamber, to our knowledge, budgets an amount directly out of its dues to finance such a program."

This year, the project is being handled by a merchant's committee separate from the Chamber of Commerce, acting in conjunction with the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

"In order to keep this from happening again," Johnston's letter continues, "the Chamber will set up a Christmas decorations committee in February of each year, and assessments for the decorations program will be collected before July 15.

"The funds collected will then be deposited in a special fund, and expenditures from it will be made only by a designated member of the decorations committee.

"It is hoped that by this means the Chamber of Commerce can lend its assistance to the project of Christmas decorating and can help in getting plans and financing underway in sufficient time to assure success," President Johnston's letter concludes.

Bones of Early Resident Found Here

into dust in a short time.

Professor Gerow pointed out that the recent discovery of a site in East Palo Alto's University Village development was much older than this find and probably dates back to a period from 1500 down to 500 BC.

Tracing the soil strata in the ditch from the creek to Cambridge avenue, Professor Gerow tentatively concluded that remains of the camp were covered over with a black soil to a depth of three to four feet. Below that level was found a definite yellow clay strata, which Professor Gerow indicated probably was the top soil or floor of the occupational site at that time.

SMALL SITE

Because a great number of "points" and other material were not discovered, the investigator think the site was a minor one and possibly part of a larger site on the creek's bank.

Measuring its size, Gerow concluded it extended from the center of what is now Cambridge avenue northwest up Arbor road for about 150 feet. He said the depth was not deep enough to indicate a long occupation.

The anthropology department of the university has inspected and dug briefly in other areas of Menlo Park, particularly near the site of Camp Fremont, but no notable discoveries have been made.

Gerow said the discovery is "at least somewhat significant, and may prove of great significance because the exact site of the Stanford Skull was never exactly determined."

Indian Bones

RAISE EYEBROWS

Discovery of the osseous remains of one of Menlo Park's earliest residents at Arbor road near Cambridge avenue last week caused eyebrows to be raised, in interest, all over the place.

Police Chief George Potter, hearing of the find, observed, "It BETTER be an Indian."

His hopes were confirmed when Stanford Professor Bert A. Gerow said the "dead man" had been so for about 1000 years.

Mayor Charles P. Burgess apparently thought the find should remain a matter of anthropological, rather than crime-solving interest. Said he:

"Since the man died before 1927, when the city was formed, the manner in which he died is outside of the purview of our police department."

But though his last analysis of the bones gave a small insight into history, Professor Gerow had a small regret himself.

"It's too bad," he said, "that Arbor road is paved. If it wasn't we could explore the site where the Indian was found, more thoroughly."

telephone tips for talkative 'teen-agers

Time has a way of slipping by when the youngsters are visiting their friends by telephone. If you have a problem like this around your house, why not tip off the youngsters to the fact that the calls they get are often more important than those they make? And, of course, no one can call them . . . or you . . . as long as they have the line tied up with lengthy conversations. That's why, when they remember to leave a few minutes between calls, they won't run the risk of missing an important date because the boy who was calling could get nothing but a busy signal.

Owner of Carport Agrees to Move It

The case of the "misplaced carport" was cleared up last week before the city council.

William Roth, who had started to build a carport at the back of his lot on Hermosa way opening on May Brown avenue, withdrew his application for a variance to allow the structure to be completed and agreed to move it further away from the street line.

Speaking in behalf of Roth was his father, Attorney Almon W. Roth, former business manager of Stanford university. He explained that, while his son felt he was legally entitled to the variance requested, he did not wish to perpetuate a controversy.

The problem arose when a building permit was issued for construction of the carport, showing its location as well back from the property line. It developed during the course of construction, however, that the "property line" ran to the center of May Brown avenue, thus leaving the carport only two feet from the sideline of the street.

Junior Red Cross Signs Up Members

Schools in the Menlo Park area are now enrolling members of the Junior Red Cross for the current school year.

The drive is progressing under the chairmanship of Mrs. James M. Stewart of Atherton, "Juniors" chairman for the Sequoia chapter, American Red Cross.

At Menlo-Atherton high school, the drive is being conducted by students advised by Mrs. Lucy Gardner.

An auction was held last week at Menlo School and College for the benefit of the drive.

Parcel Near Linfield To Be Rezoned

The city council last week introduced an ordinance to rezone the property between Alma and Laurel streets on the southerly side of "A" street from third-class residential to a zone called "C-1-B."

The new zone would permit construction of administrative, executive and research office buildings, similar to those of Sunset, Allstate, Magna and American Insurance, but on smaller minimum lots under similar strict architectural control.

The property was formerly part of the civic center area, but backs up to the Linfield Oaks development. No protests to the rezoning were recorded.

Big Project Starts:

Trench-Digging Along Middle Ave. Begins As Atherton Ave. Sewer Project Nears End

Trench-digging crews of the Kevry construction company this week prepared to start work along Middle avenue, laying the second, largest unit of the Menlo Park Sanitary District's "westerly interceptor" system as the Atherton avenue unit neared completion.

Only major portions of the first-started project — a 24-inch main from Atherton avenue and O'Dell place to Middlefield and Marsh roads—which remained uncompleted were "drills" under the Southern Pacific railroad tracks and El Camino Real.

These projects were to be done by crews other than those on the trench-digging operation, Sanitary District Superintendent Cedric W. Webster said early this week.

One minor delay in the prjeoct as a whole cropped up as the result of recent rains: the state highway department refused permission for the contractor to open El Camino Real near Middle avenue early this week, pending "satisfactory" paving over the new sewer along El Camino Real in Atherton.

The replaced dirt in the section of the trench along the highway in the latter area settled considerably after rains last week, so that at least one car, operated by a housewife entering her driveway, got stuck in the trench and had to be towed away.

Webster explained that although the contractor has been pushing dirt back into the trench as fast as it settles, he has refrained from placing rock because, he says, the "fill" is still so soft that the rock would sink below the earth and be useless as a base for new paving over the trench.

CAN START WORK

He added that even if the contractor cannot open the highway for the necessary 150 feet near Middle avenue, he can start work on the avenue itself without highway department permission.

The superintendent pointed out that the location of all major mains is known, and it is expected that digging along Middle avenue will result in a minimum of "breakage" of gas, water and sewer mains already in the ground.

There were very few cases in which the "ditch-digger" broke other mains while working on the Atherton avenue project, he said.

Tri Delts Will Hear 'Art' Talk at Meeting

Members of both the north and south sections of the Delta Delta Delta peninsula alliance will meet tonight at 8 p. m. in the Menlo Park home of Mrs. Richard P. Walker, 1337 Hillview drive. Co-hostessing from Menlo Park will be Mrs. Robert Towne Decius, while Mrs. Robert J. Neal, MP, is handling "deep south" arrangements.

Matt Kahn, fine arts instructor at Stanford univirsity, and guest speaker, will show several paintings, complete with "gallery" art talk. Members wishing to attend should contact Mrs. W. Carl Brune Jr., DA 2-7155.

EVERYONE is invited to come to the Turkey whist party tonight at 8 p. m. in Nativity hall. Sponsoring the affair is Menlo Park's Court Holy Rosary, Catholic Daughters of America; chairman is John Heaphy.

Master Plan Study Nears Completion

Menlo Park planning commissioners are "pretty well along" in their study of the city's proposed master plan, and should complete it, together with recommendations which they will pass on to the city council, by next week.

Commission Chairman Charles Andrews, making the "progress report," said that the recommendations would take the form of a report to the city council.

Andrews said that the planners have completed recommendations for revision of the proposed zoning ordinance which accompanies the plan; these will be forwarded, too, to the city council for further consideration and more hearings.

by WALTER "CHRYSLER" CARR

The Pilgrim Fathers at Plymouth in 1621 get credit for the first Thanksgiving, and in 1789 President George Washington designated such a day after the adoption of the Constitution.

And we are thankful to Walter P. Chrysler for the first Plymouth automobile, built in the '20s.

We, the firm of Walter "Chrysler" Carr at Homer and High are having a "special" Thanksgiving Day Thursday, November 20th, the day of the showing of the 1953 Plymouth, with its control tower visibility, its balanced weight distribution, its riding comfort, and driving ease, with real adventure in luxurious styling. We certainly have something to be thankful for before the National Thanksgiving Day—the showing of the new Plymouth.

Also, we are thankful for the fine reception you are giving the new 1953 Chrysler. Our sales have exceeded our expectations.

WORTH WORKING FOR

We salute the recreation committee of the Menlo Park Chamber of Commerce for taking on an important job and putting it first on their list of long-range projects.

They have undertaken to revive and coordinate the drive to build a community center building for Menlo Park.

A campaign to construct such a building—for use as a central meeting hall for all the many civic, public and special-interest groups that function in the city—was begun with great enthusiasm last year.

The city indicated it would donate a site in the civic center area. Tentative drawings for such a structure were donated. Funds were given or offered to start it off.

Then the project died.

Two things seem to have killed it. First, an over-ambitious money-raising plan went into the red when promises of help were forgotten. Second, inadequate coordination of the organizations that indicated interest allowed the project to straggle off in too many different directions.

It was a good idea. It's still a good idea. We have urged that it be picked up again and followed through. We are delighted to see that the recreation committee of the Chamber is going to do so.

It is not simply that Menlo Park does not offer enough meeting places for all its organizations. It is not just that a community building would focus all those activities in one place with a consequent increase in civic pride and interest.

Most important of all, such a building would offer adequate facilities for our Teen-Age Club.

This organization of the city's young people—now in its second year—is one of the finest and most worthwhile groups in the city. In a short time it has become an active club with a large membership.

The young people have outgrown their first quarters in the city council chambers building. They now meet in Burgess Park gymnasium, where a special lounge has been furnished for them by the Lions club and a number of parents.

But they deserve better and they want better.

When the community center building was first proposed, their's was the first donation and the largest. The group was then less than a year old, but they put into a special fund the sum of $1000 to help with the project.

That $1000 is still there, waiting for the "old folks" to get busy and go ahead with the plan.

If we don't appreciate any other need for the community building, at least we must recognize the spirit of those young people and our responsibility to them.

More power to the new drive to carry out the program! Let's go!

DOLLARS AND SENSE

Educating our children today is an expensive business, as all taxpayers of the Menlo Park area have recently been reminded with receipt of their tax bills.

It costs a lot to prepare our youngsters for life in a costly world.

This brings to mind a possible change in the new report-card system being considered by the Menlo Park Elementary School District.

Presently under discussion is a series of alphabetical symbols from "i" to "o" to indicate the level of a child's accomplishment. Perhaps parents would better understand the system if it were based on such symbols as "$" for really $atisfactory work, "*" for the *tar of the class, and ¢ for one who showed good common ¢.

After all, it's a $ and ¢ world we live in.

LINK WITH THE PAST

It was fitting that one of Menlo Park's earliest settlers turned up during the same week that the City of Menlo Park was marking its 25th anniversary.

We refer, of course, to the Indian skeleton that was unearthed in Arbor road last week by a machine digging a trench for the new storm drainage line.

It is also reassuring to find that civic troubles are nothing new, and that even a citizen of 1000 years ago could have his rest disturbed by drainage projects.

Your City's Business:

County Taxes Reviewed

By MAYOR CHAS. P. BURGESS

A couple of weeks ago I noted in the papers that Sequoia high school Superintendent Dr. Clyde Ogden charged that the county board of supervisors' pie chart did "not accurately portray a tax dollar," and otherwise condemned the attempt to show that this year's increase in the tax bill was not their fault.

My sympathies in this case are with the board of supervisors, for I have been in their position time and again and experienced the frustration of trying to save the taxpayers a penny or two in the tax rate, only to see other taxing bodies make large increases in their rates far outweighing our little city economies.

And as in Menlo Park all our taxes are collected on one bill, the average taxpayer sees only the total result and makes no analysis.

This year the basis of assessment of property in San Mateo county was increased 50 per cent by order of the state board of equalization. Thus, if a tax rate were left unchanged, a taxpayer would be paying 50 per cent more to that agency this year as against last. If the tax rate were cut back by one-third, the taxpayer would be paying the same amount.

The San Mateo county tax rate was cut back from $1.88 last year to $1.338 this year, which amounts to an actual reduction to the taxpayer of a little over one per cent.

At the same time, however, most of the school districts in the county kept their rates unchanged or decreased them only a little, greatly increasing the taxpayers' bill.

Belmont school district cut back the full amount, but the average of the 16 major school districts of the county increased its bill to the individual taxpayer by over 43 per cent!

Menlo Park was up only 27½ per cent, and Sequoia High School District only 23½ per cent, but Ravenswood was up 55½ per cent and Las Lomitas was up 216 per cent.

School taxes comprise the major part of the tax bill collected by the county. For example in South San Francisco they are 73 per cent of the county collected tax bill, in San Mateo they are 71½ per cent, in Burlingame they are 70 per cent, in San Carlos they are 62 per cent, and in Redwood City they are 67 per cent.

Is it little wonder then that the board of supervisors having cut its own tax take, should wish to point out that the much higher tax bill it had to collect was due to circumstances beyond its control.

Although we in the cities are inclined to throw rocks at the county government on occasion, we should appreciate the extent of the job they must do.

Legally the counties are an arm of the state and are required by the state constitution and statutes to carry on numerous county-wide services, including superior, justice and municipal courts, tax assessment and tax collection for schools and other districts, health and sanitation, and charities and corrections.

This last is particularly expensive, including the county hospital, the probation department, detention home, care of the insane, and aid to needy children, the blind, the aged, and the indigent.

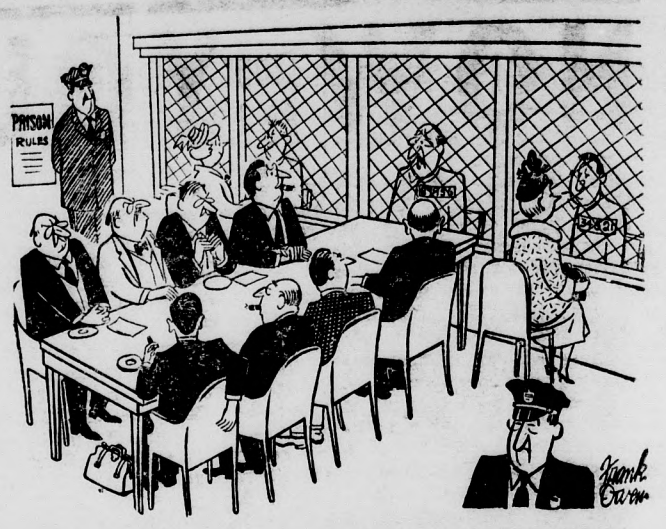

The cost of the welfare program is largely set by the state legislature, and the county has the responsibility of administering it and raising its share of the cost.

Like children in our elementary schools, the number of aged is increasing more rapidly than the population as a whole.

While city officials are critical of services rendered by the counties primarily in the unincorporated urban areas, we recognize that this is in any case only a small fraction of total county expenditures.

For these reasons I would like to see the county government get full credit for its tax cut-back.

Most school districts may be able to justify their increased tax take this year, and in any event should be willing to accept the responsibility for their actions.

"Needless to say, I don't think much of the idea you fellows sold me on at our last directors' meeting!"

Police Lauded For Fast Action In Burglary

Quick action of the Menlo Park police in solving a $500 burglary with less than four hours of investigation last week drew a letter of praise from the beneficiaries of the work. The letter was read before the city council last Wednesday.

Signers of the missive were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Muller of 311 Central avenue, whose home had been entered some time during the day of Nov. 5. About $500 worth of watches and assorted jewely was taken.

The officers began their investigation the following morning and within a few hours had learned the identity of a 13-year-old boy, now lodged at Hillcrest, who had been seen in the neighborhood.

Questioning of the suspect resulted in his confession to entering the house by means of "jimmying" the front door.

The lad also told officers where the loot was hidden, and it was recovered the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Muller's letter to the city council read:

"While we knew that the Menlo Park police force is a 'top flight' organization, we were truly amazed at the speed and efficiency with which your officers, Edgar Pabalis, William Kieler and Chief George Potter recovered articles stolen from our home.

"It made us realize that in your department the citizens of Menlo Park have real protection as well as a true friend.

"We take pleasure in expressing our gratitude for their consideration and good and brilliant work."

The police are continuing their investigation of the case, on the possibility that an adult may have been involved.

MINOR CRASH

An auto driven by Frances Louise Robinson, 27, of 1146 Hollyburne avenue, assertedly scraped a parked car owned by Robert Hamlin of 1367 Maderea avenue, last Wednesday afternoon. The accident took place on Willow road a short distance from Bayshore highway.

Menlo Building Barometer

Nine building permits, authorizing a total of $88,500 worth of construction, were issued by the City of Menlo Park during the week ended Nov. 18. They included:

RESIDENCES

C. T. Lindsay company, owner and builder; $16,000 homes at 461 Linfield drive; 481 Linfield drive; 491 Linfield drive; 451 Sherwood way.

Mellon and Golobic, owner; Ed Mellon, builder; 485 Arbor road; $17,000.

OTHER PERMITS

J. B. Mongiello, owner; day work; tool shed at 1007 Windermere avenue; $300.

W. E. Rothe, owner and builder; carport move at 1160 Hermosa way; $100.

Peter Koche, owner; day work; residence repair at 1956 Menalto avenue; $100.

Sequoia Hospital Reports on Month

A total of 83 Menlo Park residents were among the 702 persons admitted to Sequoia hospital, Redwood City, for treatment during the month of October, the facility announces in its monthly statistical report. Eight Atherton residents were also admitted during the period.

Besides the 702 admitted, there were 103 persons in the hospital at the beginning of the month. Hence, the report continues, a total of 805 persons received treatment during the month.

The hospital was the scene of 120 births, 13 deaths and 128 major operations during the month.

Seventy-eight patients were cared for in hallways; 51 were delayed on admission.

While the Farallon islands are part of San Francisco, no city official may set foot on them without permission from the lighthouse superintendent.

6 Injured in 3-Car Bayshore Accident

Six persons sustained injuries, five requiring emergency treatment, and rush hour traffic was snarled as the result of a four-vehicle rear end collision on Bayshore highway in East Palo Alto yesterday morning.

The accident occurred about 100 feet south of Clarke avenue at 8:05 a. m. when a tractor-trailer combination, a pickup truck and a passenger car, all travelling north, piled up and skidded into the south bound lane to collide with a four-passenger car.

The injured were: Alvin L. Comer, 21, Mary street, Sunnyvale; Frank Pallas, 42, 1355 46th avenue, San Francisco; John Regan, 41, 215 Noe street, San Francisco; Otto Heldobler, 39, 800 36th avenue, San Francisco; Bill Jarvis, 21, Box 589 Sunnyvale, and Mrs. Georgia Johnston, 47, 1525 East 103rd place in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Johnston refused treatment and the others were treated at Palo Alto hospital. Comer, Pallas and Regan were admitted and Jarvis and Heldobler were treated and dismissed.

Tripp Guild Bazaar Is December 5 and 6

"Buy some of those Christmas gifts on December 5 and 6," urge members of the Addie Tripp guild of Woodside Village church. Those dates mark the group's annual bazarr, set to go from 7:30 p. m. to 9 p. m. Friday and from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. Saturday in Guild hall.

Merchandise, contributed all year long by members of the guild, include special gifts, ties cakes, plants, decorations, white elephants and grab bags for the youngsters.

Mrs. H. L. Janes, overall chairman, Mrs. Fred Reynolds and Louis Dirovizza plan to meet at 1:30 p. m. on November 29 to mark the items.

CASTILLEJA FAIR

Castilleja students held their senior fair last Saturday, peceded by a fashion and stage show. Proceeds from the affair were to go to the Stanford Convalescent home and the School for Cerebral Palsied children.

A boy, born Nov. 8 at Palo Alto hospital, is the latest member of the Howard Fraser family which resides at 1001 Bay road.

Looks Like He'll

MISS GAMES

If he's a football fan, one 'teenage boy from Redwood City is going to have to "do without" for the next pair of Saturdays.

Instead, the young man will be cleaning up debris in Atherton.

This was the penalty given to him Monday night by Atherton Police Judge John Dinkelspiel, following the 'teener's arrest by police for dumping rubbish in the Lindenwood area. Atherton officers had traced the Redwood City culprit to his home through some identifiable items in the "throw-away."

Youth Sentenced For Stealing Gas

A 60-day jail sentence was pronounced and suspended on Albert Farrens, Mountain View man arrested by Atherton police for taking gasoline from a private estate.

The sentence and suspension, together with a year's probation, was levied on Farrens Monday night by Atherton Police Judge John Dinkelspiel. Leniency was granted in this case, since the 60-day confinement would work a hardship on the 24-year-old's wife and two children.

Farrens was arrested Oct. 21 by Atherton police after one of the officers saw his car, investigated and discovered the stolen fuel.

DO BIG BUSINESS

San Mateo county recorder's office handled a total of 7055 papers during the month of October, as compared to 6255 during the same month last year; 117 marriages were recorded last month, as compared with 122 during the same period last year.

Drunk Drivers Pay $550 in Atherton

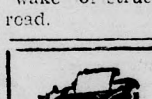

Four drunken drivers were among the offenders fined (total, $550) and penalized Monday night by Atherton Police Judge John Dinkelspiel.

Menlo Park motorist Paul G. Lapham forfeited $10 bail by not appearing in police court. Lapham had been arrested Nov. 6 when police discovered him drunk in a parked car.

James A. Knepher from Belmont, arrested on Nov. 1, drew a $150 fine and a suspended 60-days' suspension on his driver's license.

A fine of $250 was levied on Kenneth R. Dowles, who was stopped by Atherton police last month while drunk driving on Middlefield road. In addition to the fine, Dowles' license was suspended for a year, and a 60-day county jail sentence, suspended, has put him on a one year "good conduct" probationary period.

A first offender, Carl S. Swanson from Palo Alto, was fined $150. Police had arrested him after he left a "wake" of struck barriers on Marsh road.

Menlo-Atherton Fields Confident Eleven Against Sequoia There Friday Evening

fin claimed that Menlo-Atherton would not defeat Sequoia in a major sport for five years.

Last year, the locals were unable to take the Cherokees in any major sports but did come up with three victories in minor sports. The present term, however, has seen Bear victories in Class D and C basketball and in frosh-soph football. A M-A victory tomorrow night would sew up varsity sports.

Neither team has been very successful thus far in the campaign, but Sequoia's failure has been the most surprising. The Cherokees' roster this year includes players from the team that was undefeated in copping the PAL frosh-soph championship in 1950 and from a frosh-soph aggregation that wound up third in 1951.

TOUGH TIME

Coach Buck Devine's troops have won but one of seven games of the season, scoring 69 points to opponents' 151.

In practice games, they have been defeated by Bellarmine, 14-7, and Serra, 25-6. In loop play, they were bested by Willow Glen, 13-6, South San Francisco, 27-6, San Jose, 19-13 and Lincoln, 38-7.

Their lone victory was important, however, as it knocked Burlingame from the PAL lead. The Sequoians upset the strong Panthers, 19-15.

Menlo-Atherton has won two of its seven starts, scoring 70 points to opponents' 126. They split a pair of practice games by identical scores, losing to Los Gatos in their season opener, 19-0, and thumping San Jose Tech by the same count three weeks later.

Loop teams that have bettered M-A include Lincoln, 44-7, South San Francisco, 18-6, Jefferson, 13-6 and San Mateo, 26-6. Their sole PAL win was a conquest of cellar-dwelling Capuchino, 26-6.

As for comparative scores, Lincoln defeated M-A 44-7 and Sequoia 38-7, not much difference, as both clubs wilted and turned in very poor games. South City was never safe in their 18-6 conquest of M-A, but rolled over the Cherokees by a 27-6 count without much opposition.

TOSS-UP

Thus, the Peninsula sportswriters have described the tilt as a toss-up, with the laurels going to the team that gets the breaks.

Menlo-Atherton will be operating out of both "T" and double-wing formations and will probably do a great deal of throwing from the latter. The Sequoians usually run from the Notre Dame box, but occasionally call a "T" formation play.

Sequoia, with quarterback Whitey North throwing from the "T" and tailback Billy Ayers from the box, promise to do a good deal of passing. In recent games, nearly half of the Sequoia plays have been passes.

The fact that Menlo-Atherton is noted for a weak pass defense (Los Gatos, Lincoln, Jefferson and San Mateo thumped the locals almost solely on aerials) will prompt more Sequoia tosses.

AIR ATTACK

Menlo-Atherton's air attack came to life against San Mateo as their touchdown drive was sparked by QB Jack Demorest's completions to Dave Easley and Dick (Yogi) Jorgensen. Previously, only desperation long passes from Bill Gibbs to Easley had been able to produce yardage.

Costello will open with either Dan Varty or Demorest at quarterback, with Demorest operating from tailback if the Bears choose to move to the double-wing early in the game.

Hard - hitting Don Stansfield will probably get the call at left-half, with Allen (Bull) Feinstien, the locals' hardest runner and top All-PAL candidate, running at fullback.

Jorgensen, the Bears' punter, will open at right half.

SECOND PLATOON

Defensive changes will probably see Jerry Demma, Jerry Dougherty or Larry Sterling, another Sequoia transfer, or Jack Wymer at ends, Arlo Thornhill at one tackle with John Raventos on deck for either spot, and Fernandez at middle guard if the Bears remain in a 5-3-2-1 defense.

Stansfield, Day and sophomore Troy Ratliff will be backing up the line with Jorgensen, Cabaniss, Bob Brewer, Jim O'Neal and possibly Phil Knight alternating in the secondary.

The Bears' pass-catching halfback, Dave Easley, and another left half, Bob Andrade, along with double-wing tailback Bill Gibbs and right half Bruce McAllister, and center Bob Spicer will probably see duty also.

Sequoia's top threats are quarterback North, halfback Ayers, hard-hitting fullback George Zertuche and end Bill Day, all senior lettermen.

The moose is an excellent swimmer.

Menalto Choir Lists Program of Concert

Fred Waring's classic arrangements of some of the best known Christmas carols will be a feature of the Menalto Symphonic choir's third annual Christmas program, to be presented Dec. 12 at the Palo Alto Women's clubhouse.

Tickets for the concert have been placed on sale.

Besides the Waring arrangements of "Joy to the World," "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," "We Three Kings" and "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing!" the choir will present "Cantique de Noel," by Adam, in which John Nerney will sing the solo part; "Gesu Bambino," by Yon, featuring Arthur Lind as soloist and "Holy Night, Peaceful Night" with Nerney again as soloist.

The male section of the choir will present a series of selections: "The First Night," "Shoenstes Kindlein" and "A Maiden Mother's Lullaby."

An instrumental music trio group including Elizabeth Kincade, Virginia Slavich and Warren Ball, will present Beethoven's "Adagio" and Brahms' "Hungarian Dance."

Tickets to the concert are available at the Alle-Smith music store, 1139 El Camino Real.

Cubs of Pack 66 Meet Friday Night

Charles Wunderling of Los Altos, noted dog trainer, will be featured speaker at the regular monthly meeting of Menlo-Atherton Cub Scout Pack 66, scheduled to be held tomorrow evening, beginning at 7:45 p. m. at Encinal school.

Announcing the gathering, Cubmaster Bill Brown announced that Wunderling, who was an officer in the "K-9 Corps" during World War II, will illustrate his talk on the subject of "dog training" with motion pictures.

Awards will be presented to the Cubs

MAHS Class D Cagers in 'Crucial' For PAL Title

The chips are down today as Menlo-Atherton high school's class D cagers host Capuchino in the second game of a two-of-three series for the 1952 Peninsula Athletic league championship.

Burgess gym is the site of this afternoon's contest with game time set for 3:15.

Capuchino, displaying some clutch scoring in the second half, took the first game of the series by a 21-20 count Tuesday at San Bruno. Should M-A win this afternoon, the third and deciding game would probably be played at Sequoia tomorrow.

Ayers' starters for the game today will include forwards Jim Stanford and Captain Chuck Weesner, center Dale Crane, and guards Roger Clark and Bill Lawson. All except Clark are freshmen. Sophomores Allen Meyers, a forward, and Bill Schaffer, a guard, will see duty also.

Clark topped the Bruins Tuesday with six markers, followed by Weesner and Crane with four each.

'Pardue Special' Gets New Trophy

The "Pardue Special," a sport car built by Woodside's Ed Pardue, can really "go places." But nobody knows yet how fast it will travel.

Latest triumph of the custom-made vehicle was an award for excellence, presented this month at a Hollywood "Motorama." The car is also to be featured, according to Mrs. Pardue, on the cover of January's "Hot Rod" magazine.

Mrs. Pardue, who accompanied her husband on the trip south, said the car was taken by trailer to the auto show. The sport car's engine has not yet been "broken in," and the car therefore has not been given a speed trial.

'Scouters' Reset Meeting Place, Date

Because the regularly-scheduled meeting date of the 'deep south" district roundtable held under the auspices of the San Mateo county Boy Scout council falls on Thanksgiving day, the meeting has been rescheduled for tonight.

The "roundtable" session will be held in conjunction with one sponsored by the southern district, and will be held at McKinley school in Redwood City. All unit leaders, committeemen and commissioners of both districts are urged to attend the gathering, beginning at 7:45 p. m.

SET DANCE DATE

Dec. 13 has been chosen for date of the annual Christmas formal at Menlo School.

Back in Action:

MAHS Frosh-Soph Footballers Meet SSF Today; Have Small Chance at PAL Title

Coaches Malcolm Taylor and Jay Polon bring their Menlo-Atherton high school frosh - soph football squad into action today after a week's layoff.

The Bruins host South San Francisco, who is presently sharing the lower regions of the loop with Carlmont, at Sequoia's Terremere field. Kickoff time is 3:15 p. m.

M-A, while having virtually no practical chance at the Peninsula Atheltic league title, still has an outside mathematical chance if Palo Alto is dumped in both of its remaining games and several other upsets take place.

Paly defeated M-A two weeks ago on a pass interception with just two minutes of play remaining. The final score was 12-6.

KEY PLAYER OUT

Menlo-Atherton will still be without the services of offensive fullback Duncan Ferguson, a linebacker on defense. The locals' leading ground gainer twisted his knee early in the San Mateo game on Oct. 30 and has been out ever since.

First line quarterback Bob Wright will be out, too, as the ace passer has a finger injury.

The starting backfield will have Pete Welch at quarterback, Tom Demorest at left-half, Dohn Bogue at fullback and Wally Baker at right half. Welch, who had been filling in for Ferguson very well at the fullback spot, was Wright's understudy earlier in the campaign.

Bogue usually opens at right half, but has been moved to fullback to fill the vacancy created by Welch and Baker, who usually plays mostly defense, has been named at right half so will probably go both ways.

Freshman Bill Hilton and sophomore Leon Finegold will operate at the end positions, Bob Herold will definitely start at one tackle, Bill Douglas and Billy Boorman will go at guards and Bob Miller is to open at center.

ANOTHER GAME

Unless either Wright or Ferguson are ready to go in time for the Bruins' finale next Thursday, today's starting backfield will probably open then, too.

The Bruins' opponent for the final game will be Carlmont with the game slated for Sequoia's Terremere field at 3:15 p. m. Carlmont is winless thus far while M-A enters today's fracas with four wins, one loss (Palo Alto, 12-6) and one tie (Jefferson, 7-7).

The average chipmunk family counsists of the parents and four young.

MP Man Plays In COP Orchestra

Brooks Gibbons, whose home address is 1029 Tehama avenue, Menlo Park, is a member of the 75th anniversary concert orchestra of the College of the Pacific Conservatory of music, it was announced from the college this week.

Gibbons is a bass player.

The orchestra presented its opening concert Tuesday evening in Stockton.

Selecting Most Useful Tools for Garden Poses Big Problem for Green-Thumbers

By TERRY LEE

It is a problem, with all the new and fancy garden tools, to select the ones that will help you the most in your many tasks. Poor tools are a waste, and too many just clutter up the garage.

Just the basic tools, including a lawn mower, can run into a minimum of $75. If you were to list your own implements and their replacement value, you would probably find upwards of $200 worth of equipment.

There are three basic tools: a spade, a rake and a hoe. Spades can be square or pointed, long or short handled, heavy or light.

Many gardeners supplement a spade with a fork, which makes digging in our heavy soil much easier. The old fashioned tooth rake is being replaced by disk-like ones, which are marvelous for getting out weeds, and the metal version of the bamboo rake, for getting up leaves and debris.

BIG SELECTION

There are so many types of hoes, or cultivators, that the display is staggering. I like a blade that is about six inches wide and three inches deep. It's just enough to pulverize the top crust or make a furrow. There are pronged varieties, or double-headed ones that give you a choice.

A hoe is as personal as a golf club and it is fun to try out several to find your preference.

There is one thing that belongs with a hoe and a spade; without it I don't know how anyone gardens. It is a file. How can you expect to sever weeds or break up clods without a sharp-edged blade!

You ought to keep a file in your hip pocket and spruce up the blade of your hoe after every 15 minutes of work. It's amazing how even the laziest gardener can get a lot done with sharp tools.

There are hand counterparts of the big spade, rake and hoe. The most useful are a narrow, pointed trowel and a pronged cultivator.

Other hand tools you should have are sharp pruning shears and hand grass shears. Again, it is useless to have them if they aren't sharp, so don't be fooled by the cheap ones.

NEEDED DEVICE

Of course you need a lawn mower, and the size of your lawn should determine whether it is power or push. You will need lots of hose. There is much to be said for buying a ¾-inch hose instead of the standard ⅝. With just that much difference you will get twice as much water spinning out of your sprinkler. I like to have four or five 25-foot lengths so I can have a hose at every outlet.

For that much hose two sprinkler heads are enough, and a good one will last a long time and throw a good spray. My favorite sprinkler for the vegetable garden is a canvas hose called a soil soaker.

You will need some kind of a sprayer or duster. My favorite is a sprayer that work likes a slide trombone. The chemicals are easily mixed in the adjoining bucket. The nozzle can be lengthened and adjusted to fog or pin-point spray. You will need something to carry away debris, which can vary from a strong canvas to a fancy wheelbarrow.

TEMPTATIONS

There are many things that will tempt you, which you can buy, rent or borrow, depending on the size of your lot or your neighborhood.

There are spreaders, leaf sweepers, edgers, areators,

Just remember to keep them sharp and clean, a bit of oil will keep your tools from rusting. But the best way to get rust off a spade is to go out and dig with it!

GARDEN CALENDAR

Week of Nov. 20

This warm weather has extended fall gardening several weeks, and perennials that ordinarily should have been divided by now are still blooming, so you can wait to do this. There's still lots of time for bulb planting, too.

• • • •

There are leaf hoppers on roses and chrysanthemums this time of year.

They are small, active wedge-shaped insects that jump when disturbed. They feed on the sap in leaves, and will make the plants lose color and vigor.

Kill them by actually hitting them with a spray of Extrax and oil, 2 teaspoons of each to a gallon of water.

• • • •

It is sad to see the wasteful bonfires of leaves this time of the year, and the biggest bonfire is usually in front of the house with the poorest-looking lawn.

Leaves from healthy trees are a valuable organic material and should be added to the compost heap. Only diseased material should make up a bonfire.

• • • •

The latest in the series of United States department of agriculture yearbooks is titled "Insects." (Edited by Alfred Stefferud. 780 pages. Washington, D. C., Superintendent of Documents. $2.50).

It is practical and readable and full of interesting sidelights, such as collecting and preserving insects.

There are 72 color plates and many line drawings. It is a full account of the importance of the insect world, and its relation to and effect on plants and crops and, through them, man.

GUEST MINISTER

At the Unitarian service Sunday, Nov. 23, the guest minister will be the Rev. Donald Harrington, a member of the national executive council of United World Federalists and member of the Community church of New York City.

His sermon topic will be: "Religion and a United World."

IN NORTH PALO ALTO

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Lampkin, 124 Durham street are the parents of a boy born Nov. 8 at Palo Alto hospital.

FROM KOREAN WATERS

George T. Dodson, whose home is at 408 Pope street, returned to the United States via San Francisco early this month, aboard the aircraft carrier USS Essex. The carrier has finished a combat cruise lasting more than seven months in Korean waters.

ON DINNER COMMITTEE

John Sullivan of Menlo Park served on the arrangements committee for a dinner given Tuesday night by the San Mateo county group of the Alumni of the University of San Francisco. The affair was presented in San Mateo.

MAHS 'Dad's Club' Elects Officers

A Dads' club of Menlo-Atherton high school is in operation. Organized to "foster and encourage the morale of sons and daughters in all extra-curricular activities," the club held its second session Monday night at the high school.

Jim Gowdy of Atherton was named president when the organization held its "kick-off" meeting Nov. 5, with Leo Varty of Menlo Park named vice president and Don Hampton of Atherton elected secretary-treasurer.

Committeemen named included Earl Sundquist, banquet; S. Paxton, awards; H. E. Mokler, new scholastic projects; Ben Holland, new athletic projects; John Demorest, publicity; Jim Ferguson, boosters; Paul Baxter, ways and means; and Jim Weesner, membership.

The backing of the Menlo-Atherton school administration and coaching staff was promised by faculty members in attendance. They included Nicholas Nugent, vice principal; Al Terremere, director of boys' physical education; and coaches Howard Costello, Don Dorfmeier, Malcolm Taylor and Bob Ayers. Jay Polon, Taylor's assistant, was also present.

No One Hurt In Auto Crash

Autos driven by Frank A. Pomaras, 31, of Mountain View and Gayle Weston Jones, were involved in a minor accident on El Camino Real near Valparaiso avenue at 2:20 a. m. Sunday.

According to police, both autos were southbound when Gayle's auto, travelling a short distance ahead of the other, moved into the lane in which Pomaras' car was travelling.

Both cars were driven away.

Real 'Community Center' for EPA:

New Addition to Ravenswood Rec Center Will Be Dedicated on December 6

The former A. L. Fraer residence, adjoining the Ravenswood Recreation center at 500 Bell street, will be formally dedicated, Dec. 6, to community use as a facility primarily for adults and 'teenagers.

The former home and its grounds, the latter more than an acre in extent, was purchased by the Ravenswood Park, Recreation and Parkways district last August for $37,875.

According to District Director Jack Farrell and the newly appointed social director, Mrs. Ralph Blom, the building is ideal for a 'tweenage, 'teenage and adult gathering place.

Neither a definite program nor definite meeting dates for various age groups have been set yet, but a meeting scheduled for yesterday (after press time) was to have decided the latter.

As for the program, both Mrs. Blom and Farrell feel that the 'teenagers, the young marrieds and the working men and women can best form that once they get together. There will be social dancing for the high school set if they want it; ski parties for the young adults if they want it.

'OVER 50' GROUP

There is also hope between the directors that a group of men and women over 50 years of age will come to regard the new center as a meeting place. And, conversely, Mrs. Blom and Farrell look to more attention for the 'tweenagers — seventh and eighth graders.

Buildings behind the main house are available for various arts and crafts classes, which will be expanded to fit community desires.

Another idea now in embryo stage is the formation of a drum and bugle corps, with headquarters at the annex. Already, Mrs. Blom has thought of a gathering place for Christmas caroleers in the living room of the main building.

Other projects planned for the center include a grassed area behind the former residence for croquet and a barbeque pit; a "breezeway" between the annex and the Bell street Rec building; a park in the empty lot adjacent to the new center.

Lad, 17, Cited Following Mishap

A fistful of citations was handed to Richard Koler, 17, of 2212 Clarke avenue, Palo Alto, following an accident in which he was involved last Thursday morning. The mishap occurred at Gilbert street a short distance north of Menalto avenue.

According to officers' reports, the Koler auto crashed into a vehicle driven by Peter Della Maggiore, 48, of San Jose, as the latter left an alley.

Koler was cited for having faulty brakes on his car; no driver's license in his possession and no license plates on his car.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Florence Lofkot

Funeral services were to be held at 3 p. m. today for Mrs. Florence Lofkot of 89 Watkins avenue, Atherton, who died Monday in Palo Alto. Mrs. Lofkot had been a resident of the community for the past 15 years.

The wife of Joseph J. Lofkot, she was 68. Mrs. Lofkot had been a member of the congregation of the Menlo Park Presbyterian church and the Westminster women, church women's group. She was a native of Kansas.

Friends are invited to attend the funeral, which is to be conducted from the Roller and Hapgood chapel, 980 Middlefield road, Palo Alto.

Surviving Mrs. Lofkot, besides her husband, are sons Frank W. Lofkot of San Anselmo and Walter H. Lofkot of San Francisco and a daughter, Mrs. B. C. Luttringer of San Francisco. She was the grandmother of eight and the great grandmother of two.

The Rev. Don Emerson Hall, pastor of the Menlo Park Presbyterian church and the Rev. W. L. Bone, pastor emeritus, are to officiate at the services.

Christian Toft

Christian Toft, who had resided at the home of his daughter, 1981 Menalto avenue, for the past eight years, was buried yesterday. He had died in San Mateo early this week, at the age of 69 years.

A native of Denmark, Toft is survived by his wife, Blanche Toft of San Francisco. He had made his home with Mrs. Gertrude Butler and in addition to her is survived by the following sons and daughters:

Peter K. Toft of El Centro, Andrew Toft of Chicago, Mrs. Erma Gilmour of Monterey Park, Calif., Mrs. Mary Sutherland of San Francisco and Robert Toft of El Monte.

He was the grandfather of 12.

Funeral services were conducted from the Roller and Hapgood funeral chapel, under the auspices of Palo Alto lodge 346, F&AM, of which Toft had been a member. Interment was at Alta Mesa Memorial park.

Arthur Roller

Funeral services were to be held this morning for Arthur Roller, prominent Pninsula mortician, former Palo Alto civic leader and a resident of Menlo Park for the past six years.

Roller, who was 68, died Monday afternoon when his auto was struck by a train as he was driving across the Southern Pacific railroad tracks at Charleston road, south of Palo Alto. He was alone in the car at the time, investigating highway patrolmen said, and was pronounced dead on arrival at Palo Alto hospital.

A member of the Palo Alto city council from 1'16 to 1920, Roller had been active in other civic groups throughout his life. He entered the undertaking business in Palo Alto in 1900.

He had made his final home at 312 Trenton way, Menlo Park.

Survivors include his wife, Vivian, who resides here; two brothers, Milton B. Roller and Fred Roller of Palo Alto and a sister, Mrs. Jennie Follmer, also of Palo Alto. He is also survived by sons Robert and Willis Arthur Roller and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were to be conducted under the auspices of Palo Alto lodge 1471, BPOE, of which Roller was a charter member. He was also a member of Palo Alto lodge 346 F&AM and Palo Alto Commandery 46, Knights Templar and Royal Arch Chapter 93.

The obsequies were to be conducted from the Roller and Hapgood chapel in Palo Alto, beginning at 11 a. m. Interment was to be at Alta Mesa Memorial park.

V. W. Lightbody

Victor Warren Lightbody, a resident of Menlo Park prior to his moving to South Palo Alto four years ago, was buried yesterday. He died Monday at the age of 60.

Suvivors include his wife, Mrs Villa Lightbody, who resides at 724 Menlo avenue and daughters Mrs. Effie Gean Arms of Menlo Park;

ON WATCH IN SKY

KEEPING THEIR EYES OPEN and their training intact are members of the Palo Alto squadron of the Civil Air Patrol, more than one-fifth of the members of which reside in Menlo Park. Preparing to start off on one of the unit's recent flights are shown (left) Warrant Officer Mac Hollen, 1860 Camino de Los Robles and Lieutenant Wayne Rossiter, 922 Roble avenue. The squadron, which has 31 regular members, also has a "cadet" unit for boys and girls of 15 to 18 years of age aod, besides actual flying, has a social events program. Regular meetings are held at Palo Alto airport at 8 p.m. Wednesday nights.

Mrs. Elinor Wood of Redwood City, Mrs. Mildred Isom of Redwood City and Mrs. Lola Schink of Tacoma, Wash.

A native of Nova Scotia, Lightbody is also survived by one brother and five sisters, in addition to nine grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted from the Johnston and Tinney Colonial chapel, 650 Live Oak avenue, with Dr. Frank Eden, pastor of the Menlo Park First Baptist church, officiating.

Leslie Rood

Funeral services were held Saturday for Leslie LeRoy Rood, 68, who died at Sequoia hospital last week. A publisher of the Linden, New Jersey, News for many years, he had been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Mazonas of 1121 Werth avenue, before he was stricken.

Rood, who had been in failing health for some time and whose death was attributed to natural causes, is survived by Mrs. Mazonas; a son, Leslie LeRoy Rood Jr. of Washington, D. C., and grandchildren Diane and Peter Mazonas of this city and Macrae Rood of Washington.

Funeral services were conducted from the Johnston-Tinney Colonial chapel, 650 Live Oak avenue, with Dr. Frank E. Eden of the Menlo Park First Baptist church officiating.

Interment was at Alta Mesa Memorial park.

Nov. 28 to Be 'Blood Day' Here

Next visit of the Sequoia chapter, American Red Cross' "Bloodmobile" at the Menlo Park civic center will be from 8 a. m. to 12 noon, Nov. 23.

Mrs. Norman White, blood donations chairman for the chapter, points out that the need has become more than ordinarily urgent during recent weeks, with the resumption of heavy fighting in Korea.

She added, too, that the chapter is making an effort to contact all prospective blood donors in this area; many, she said, have previously donated blood for the armed forces through other Red Cross units.

"The Sequoia chapter is the Red Cross unit serving this area," Mrs. White points out, "and it is our aim to make our blood collections program available to all residents."

Persons wishing to make appointments to give blood Nov. 28 are urged to call chapter headquarters, EM 6-3851.

100 YEARS EXPERIENCE

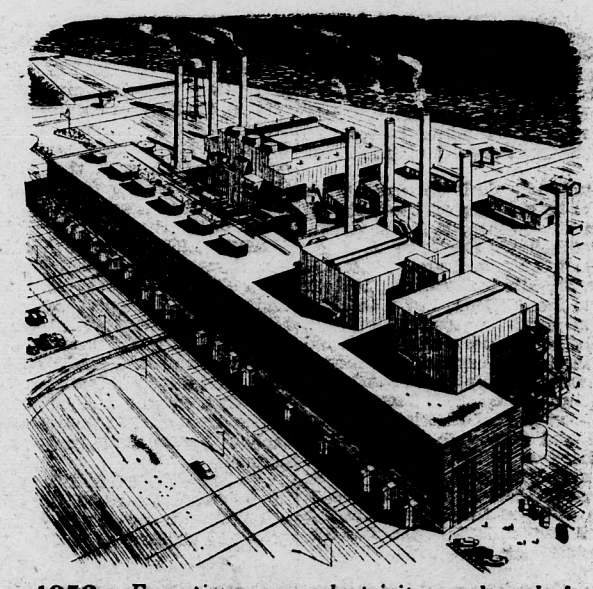

How it's helped us develop new ways to bring you more electricity

1879—San Francisco was first city in the world where anyone could buy electricity. P. G. and E. power business dates from this tiny plant

1901—First to make electricity by burning oil instead of coal was station "A"—650 times larger than the first P. G. and E. plant.

1952—Four times more electricity per barrel of oil—compared with the 1901 plant—comes from generators in the Contra Costa plant.

Electric service for the public didn't come to the West until 27 years after P. G. and E. began as a gas company. But when it came, it was the first anywhere in the world. In the years since, scores of power plants have been built . . . some using water to turn generators, some steam. Each plant has been a more efficient power producer.

Still greater progress lies ahead. With the authorization of the Atomic Energy Commission, P. G. and E. is studying generation of electricity by atomic energy.

One result of P. G. and E.'s progress is that good gas and electric service is truly cheap in California.

Officials Express Regret on Passing Of B. E. Hayden

Menlo Park city officials this week stated their regrets over the death of Beauford Emmet Hayden, former Menlo Park planning commissioner and retired civil engineer.

Hayden, whose home was at 1265 San Mateo drive, had been a member of the planning commission during 1947 and 1948. He died Saturday at a Los Altos rest home, following a long period of declining health, at the age of 77.

Mayor Charles P. Burgess stated his personal regrets and lauded the former city planner's work for the community:

"It was with great personal regret that I learned of his passing," Burgess, who was a neighbor of the stricken family, stated. "Mr. Hayden's valuable work on the planning commission was greatly appreciated by those of us who worked with him.

Hayden had made his home here for the past seven years.

Prior to his retirement, he had been, for 42 years, associated with the US Bureau of Reclamation, and for 25 years of that time had been superintendent of the Klamath Irrigation district with headquarters at Klamath Falls, Ore.

He was a graduate of the University of Oklahoma, and was a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Surviving Hayden are his wife, Mrs. Augusta J. Hayden of Menlo Park; daughters Mrs. Max W. Forsythe of this city and Mrs. Otis Mulliken of Washington, D. C. and a son, E. Bush Hayden of Los Angeles.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday from the Johnston and Tinney Colonial chapel.

PETITION FOR ANNEXATION OF TERRITORY TO RAVENSWOOD WATER WORKS DISTRICT SAN MATEO COUNTY WATER WORKS DISTRICT NO. 1

To: HONORABLE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF SAN MATEO
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

(LEGAL NOTICES)

WE, the undersigned, being the owners and holders of title to more than one-half of the hereinafter described real property, which territory is unincorporated and is not included in a county irrigation district or a county water works district, respectfully pray that said territory be added to the Ravenswood Water Works District, being San Mateo County Water Works District No. 1.

No improvements are necessary in order to supply said territory with water by the Ravenswood Water Works District except for a minor connecting link from the Ravenswood Water Works District system to the existing water system in the territory proposed to be annexed thereto.

Said territory is situate in the Rancho de las Pulgas, County of San Mateo, State of California, and is more particularly described as follows:

BEGINNING at a point in the easterly line of the State Highway Route IV-S-107-B, mIP commonly known as Willow Road, where said easterly line is intersected by the northerly line of Block 19, as said road and block are shown on that certain map entitled "BAY SHORE PARK, SAN MATEO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA", filed for record December 22, 1926, in Volume 14 of Maps, at Pages 60, 61 and 62, Records of San Mateo Conty; thence from said point of beginning Easterly along the northerly line of said Bay Shore Park to the northeasterly corner thereof; thence southerly along the easterly line of said Bay Shore Park and continuing Southerly along the southerly prolongation of last mentioned easterly line to the southerly line of Bay Road, County Road No. 32; thence Westerly along the southerly line of said Bay Road to the easterly line of Menalto Avenue, as said Menalto Avenue is shown on that certain map entitled "MENALTO PARK MAP NO. 3 SAN MATEO COUNTY, CALIF." filed for record December 1, 1927, in Volume 16 of Maps at Page 52, Records of San Mateo County; thence Southerly along the easterly line of said Menalto Avenue to the intersection of said easterly line with the southeasterly prolongation of the northeasterly line of Bayshore Highway as shown on said map of Menalto Park Map No. 3; thence Northwesterly 1929.33 feet, more or less, along the northeasterly line of the Bayshore Highway to the easterly line of said Willow Road; thence Northerly along the easterly line of said Willow Road to the point of beginning.

BEFORE THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF SAN MATEO COUNTY, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of the Petition of BARRETT & HILP DEVELOPMENT CO. for Annexation of Certain Territory Within the East Palo Alto Water District, San Mateo County Waterworks District No. 2.

PETITION FOR ANNEXATION OF TERRITORY

TO THE HONORABLE, THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF SAN MATEO, STATE OF CALIFORNIA:

The petition of BARRETT & HILP DEVELOPMENT CO. (hereinafter referred to as "Petitioner"), respectfully shows:

1. Petitioner is BARRETT & HILP DEVELOPMENT CO., a California corporation. The address of the principal office of petitioner is 919 Harrison Street, San Francisco, California.

2. East Palo Alto Water District, San Mateo County Waterworks District No. 2 (hereinafter referred to as "District"), is a waterworks district situate in the County of San Mateo, State of California, organized and now existing and functioning under and pursuant to the provisions of that certain act of the Legislature of the State of California, known as "County Waterworks District Act," Statutes of 1913, page 785, as amended, being Act 9123, Deering's General Laws of the State of California.

3. Petitioner desires to annex territory hereinafter described contiguous to said District. Said territory proposed to be annexed is unincorporated territory situated in the County of San Mateo, which is in the same county as in which said District is situated, and is not included within the limits of any county irrigation district or county waterworks district whatsoever.

4. The boundaries of said contiguous territory proposed to be added and annexed to said District are described as follows:

BEGINNING at a point in the boundary line of the East Palo Alto Water District where said boundary line is intersected by the southerly line of Lot 12, Black 11, as said lot and block are shown on that certain map entitled "TRACT NO. 649 UNIVERSITY VILLAGE SUBDIVISION NO. 3 SAN MATEO COUNTY, CALIF." filed for record Feb. 21, 1952, in Volume 34 of Maps at pages 27 to 30 inclusive, Records of San Mateo County, and running thence from said point of beginning southerly, southwesterly and westerly along the boundary line of said East Palo Alto Water District to the boundary line of the Ravenswood Water District; thence northerly and southwesterly along the boundary line of said Ravenswood Water District to the easterly line of that certain 50 foot strip of land described in deed to the Spring Valley Water Company recorded May 4, 1912, in Book 210 of Deeds at Page 202, Records of San Mateo County; thence northerly along the easterly line of said 50 foot strip of land to the southerly right of way line of the Southern Pacific Company; thence easterly along said right of way line on a curve to the left, tangent to a line which bears North 74° 52' 45.5" East, said curve having a radius of 11,559.19 feet, a central angle of 6° 22' 42.2" and an arc length of 1286.81 feet to a point in the northerly line of said Tract No. 649; thence in an easterly and southerly direction along the northerly and easterly line of said Tract No. 649 to the point of beginning.

CONTAINING in the aggregate 118.11 acres, more or less.

The southerly and southeasterly boundary lines of the above described territory are contiguous to the boundary of the said District. A map entitled "Map Showing Lands To Be Annexed To East Palo Alto Water District, San Mateo County Water Works District No. 2, San Mateo County, Calif.," revised as of September 16, 1952, is attached hereto, marked Exhibit A, and made a part hereof.

5. Petitioner is the holder of title to lands within such contiguous territory so proposed to be annexed to said District and the lands so held by petitioner represent more than one-half of the lands proposed to be annexed, as shown by the last equalized assessment roll of the county, to-wit, 77.81 acres, more or less.

6. The total assessed valuation of said territory so proposed to be annexed, as shown by the last equalized county assessment roll, is the sum of approximately $36,414.00.

7. The improvements necessary for supplying the inhabitants of said territory with water consist of the installation of water distribution mains and services to the houses of said inhabitants.

8. Prior to the filing of this petition with the Board of Supervisors, the proposal to annex the within described real property to said District and the boundaries of said territory so proposed to be annexed were submitted to the Boundary Commission of the County of San Mateo, State of California. Said Boundary Commission at a meeting duly and regularly called and held on the 7th day of October 1952, duly and regularly passed and adopted Resolution No. 83, wherein and whereby said annexation proposal and the boundaries of the territory so proposed to be annexed were approved. All such proceedings were pursuant to and in conformity with the provisions of Statutes of 1949, Chapter 920, (Deering's Act No. 1838).

WHEREFORE, petitioner respectfully prays that the territory hereinabove described be annexed to and included within the said East Palo Alto Water District, San Mateo County Waterworks District No. 2, and that this Honorable Board provide for and order the holding of a special election in said District and in said proposed addition to determine whether or not the boundaries of said District shall be modified and said territory shall be added to and become a part of said District.

DATED at San Francisco, California, this 16th day of October 1952.

Horses Going to Doas:

'Git Along, Old Paint' Echoes as Residents Act to Oust Horses from Barn Near City

The modern age—and a growing city—caught up with four horses on the edge of Menlo Park last week.

The horses live on properties owned by Richard K. Cameron, 1700 Stanford avenue, and by Hermann Kohlmoos, on Lemon avenue. A group of persons who reside — mostly in recently built homes — nearby, appeared before last week's meeting of the Menlo Park city council to ask that body to intercede with county officials to prohibit keeping of horses in that area.

Everyone agreed that the horses were there first, that they have been kept in the area for 12 years or more, but a series of their neighbors arose to declare that, with homes now built up on all sides, the horses, with their flies, dust and odors are no longer suitable; neigh more, they were called a nuisance and a hazard to health.

First spokesman for the group was James Armstrong, 1013 Seymour lane. Armstrong said that keeping of horses at their present addresses was not in compliance with county ordinances.

SCHOOL NEARBY

He gave credit to the county health department for helping on several occasions to improve conditions. But, he declared, the dust and flies are now a serious problem for residents of the area and he feels that the variance under which the horses have been allowed to stay, should now be permanently revoked.

He further pointed out that the Hillview kindergarten area is only some 400 feet from the horse barns and that teachers had complained of the flies.

Arthur Rake, 24 Palm court, declared that his wife was afraid to put their 8-month-old son outdoors because of the flies.

HEALTH REPORT

Royall Hodge, representing the county department of health and welfare, reported that recent inspection of the Kohlmoos property had revealed many flies and some manure in evidence.

He declared that, in fairness to the horses and their owners, there had been, at the time, no evidence of flies breeding on the premises. He admitted that flies have been unusually numerous throughout the county and the state this year. But as a member of the health department, he declared it would be beneficial to remove the horses from the area now that it is so heavily built up.

Seven other residents of the surrounding area echoed the statements of Armstrong and Blake.

The council, after hearing all the statements from those protesting the horses' presence, directed the city manager to write the county Board of Supervisors requesting that they prohibit keeping of horses in the area bounded by Olive and Lemon streets between Santa Cruz avenue and Stanford avenue.

City CD Wardens Get Handbooks

Menlo Park's civil defense wardens have been issued instruction handbooks, it was revealed recently by John Johnson, city administrative assistant. The booklets have been made available through the federal civil defense administration.

Titled "The Warden's Handbook," the 34-page document summarizes civil defense organization, gives data on the training of wardens' groups, lists information which should be passed on to residents by wardens and tells of administrative duties, attack duties, and lists official publications available to civil defense workers.

Armed Robbers Stage Raids Here

A small but pernicious rash of armed robberies broke out in Southern San Mateo county this weekend, with Sheriff's officers called to investigate two: one at the Belle Haven Motel on Bayshore highway and a second at the North Fair Oaks liquor store, 3252 Middlefield road.

First and largest of the assaults was committed by a lone burglar who entered the liquor store at 6:35 p. m. Sunday and ordered a bottle of gin from clerk Jack Aguilar. Aguilar turned to get the liquor, and when he faced the customer again he found himself confronted with a revolver.

The suspect ordered him to surrender the money in the store's cash register and after taking same, he fled.

Aguilar, whose employer, John Repetto, was asleep upstairs, told investigating officers the robber was about 23 years of age, blond, and clad in jacket and jeans. No "get-away car" was observed.

Second robbery was committed by two youths, both about 19.

Mrs. Zola Emmick, proprietor of the motel, told investigators they entered her office at about 12:35 a. m. Monday, one holding a pistol and the other brandishing a knife.

They ordered her to surrender all currency on hand, and obtaining $24, fled in an auto on Bayshore highway.

The long-crested blue jay is a common and conspicuous resident on both rims of the Grand canyon.

MP Will Have Blood 'Bank'; Local P-TA's Behind the Idea

The latest in a long line of P-TA achievements will be realized on February 19, 1953, when the San Mateo county blood bank mobile unit comes to Stanford Village to secure the first 100 pints of blood for use by any resident in the Menlo Park School District.

Collection hours for the bloodmobile will be 3 p. m. to 7 p. m.

Mrs. Martha Vandervoort, Menlo Park school nurse and chairman of the blood bank committee here, states that the need for blood on the home front is vital, and contribution of one pint of blood is the best life insurance one can buy for his family.

Persons interested in donating to the chapter supply of blood are urged to contact the following school representatives:

Mrs. Richard Bridges, Central, DA 2-7867; Mrs. Owen Johnson, Oak Knoll, DA 3-5607; Mrs. J. B. Ball, Encinal, DA 2-2337; Mrs. James Jones, Fremont, DA 3-4872; Mrs. William F. True, Hillview, DA 3-1616.

The blood bank will immediately provide blood in small or large quantities when needed, at one-fourth the usual expense. Beneficiaries will be morally—not legally—bound to replace the blood, and the women mentioned above will help find the donors.

Pledges will be accepted right now. Transportation to and from Stanford Village on February 19 will be furnished, with a definite schedule set up to eliminate delay and inconvenience.

The blood bank is a culmination of six months' planning, having first been presented in idea form by Mrs. Raymond Peters, president of Encinal P-TA.

Tri Delts Plan Hollyday Show

The Delta Delta Delta peninsula alliance has just joined the Holiday train of festivities, with a fashion show planned for Friday, December 12. This affair will take the place of the regular "Fashionable Fridays" put on at the Villa Chartier in San Mateo.

Tickets for the 1 p. m. event may be reserved in this area by calling Mrs. Charles W. Burkett, DA 3-6650 or Mrs. Robert J. Neal, DA 3-9878.

The array of party mood evening dresses, cocktail gowns, suits, coats, pajamas and negligees will be commentated by fashion coordinator and television personality, Adalene Ross. In addition, there will be a sale of Christmas table ornaments, decorations, candles and gifts, hand made by Tri Delt alumnae throughout the year.

Modelling duties have been assigned to several local women: Mrs. James E. Mack of Atherton, mother of four boys, Peninsula Volunteer and Junior auxiliary member . . . Mrs. W. Carl Brune Jr. of Menlo Park, past president of the Alliance and mother of two.

Mrs. Richard P. Walker of Menlo Park, who has three children and work with the Junior League and PV's to keep her busy.

Committee members include Mrs. Charles H. Schumacher of Menlo Park, assistant general chairman; Mrs. Daniel R. Kelley, Menlo Park, projects chairman; Mrs. Mack and Mrs. Needham Lambert, both of Atherton, assistant projects chairmen.

Ms. Neal, Menlo Park, ticket and reservations co-chairmen; Mrs. W. A. Dunlap, Menlo Park, publicity co-chairmen; Mrs. J. A. Best and Miss Alice Baker, both of Menlo Park, seating committee.

Purpose of the Friday fashion fete is to raise money for scholarships to be given to local high school students contemplating college training. Applicants are judged principally on studies, with due consideration to leadership and community responsibility.

Mothers' Council Hears Dr. Grove, Psychologist

Members of the Menlo Park Presbyterian church Mothers' council met yesterday at 9:45 a. m. to hear Dr. William R. Grove, psychologist, discuss "Developing Responsibility in the Child."

At present, Dr. Grove is chief of psychological service at the Veterans hospital in MP, and assists in the training program for graduate students from Stanford university and the University of California.

Dr. Grove is a newly-elected member of the session of Menlo Park Presbyterian church, where he also assists in the adult Bible classes.

Selby Lane Tea Today

The Atherton home of Mrs. Theodor Lenzen, 96 Serrano drive, will be the site this afternoon for a tea hostessed by the board members of Selby Lane P-TA, and honoring the teachers and room mothers.

Regular board meeting of the in the home of Mrs. Robert L. Smi- P-TA was held Tuesday morning ley.

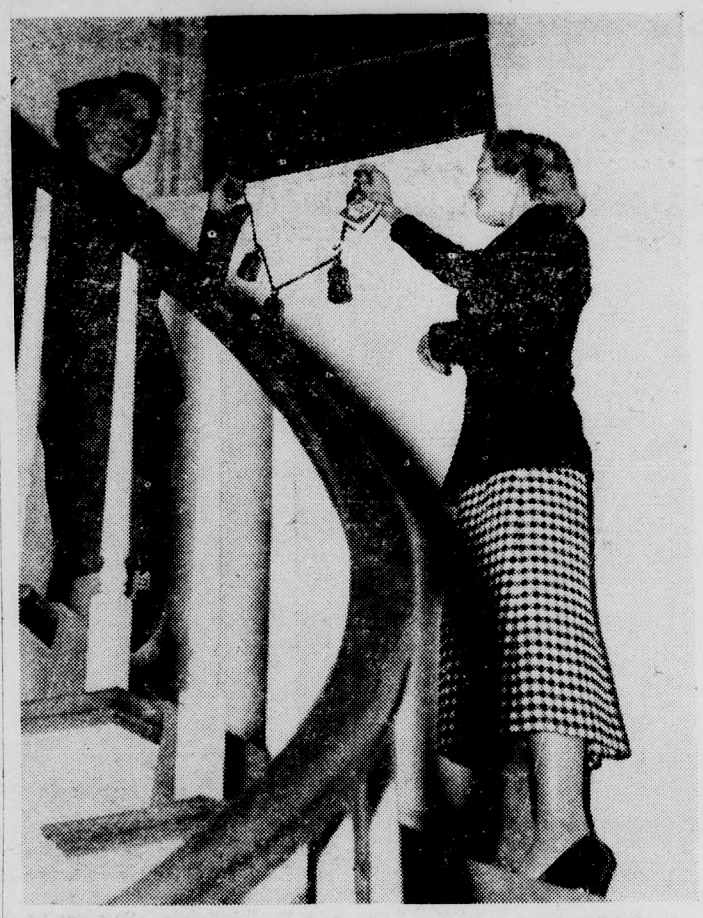

MP Publisher's Son To Wed Berkeley Girl

A January wedding date has been set by Melvin W. Lane of Palo Alto and Joan Fletcher of Berkeley. The benedict-elect is the son of Sunset magazine publisher Laurence W. Lane and Mrs. Lane, and is employed at the Menlo Park plant.

The bride-to-be, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Fletcher, is an affiliate of the Spinsters and the Oakland Junior League. She studied at the Anna Head school and was graduated from Smith college.

Mel is a Stanford alumnus, class of '45, and was a member of Delta Tau Delta social fraternity. He will automatically resign membership in the Bachelors upon his marriage, but will stay with the Bohemian club.

Beverly Clark, Harold LeSieur Jr Wed In Surprise Reno Ceremony

The newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. LeSieur Jr. (Beverly Watson Clark) are now "at home" in Palo Alto, following their surprise elopement to Reno on Saturday. The couple were to have been married November 28, and elaborate wedding plans are thus cancelled.

Frimary reason for the elopement, according to the Menlo Park bride, was the pressure of her husband's final examinations at Stanford, scheduled to begin about the time of their original wedding date.

Beverly and Hal left Saturday from San Francisco airport, hailed off with cheers and rice from assembled friends.

The bride was dressed in a biege suit of French wool, accented with black accessories and covered by a camel's hair coat for protection against the snowstorm then raging in the Sierras—she also carried a long-handled umbrella. A traditional bridal corsage of orange blossoms and orchids completed the ensemble.

The couple, who returned on the maiden voyage of a United airliner, were greeted again by friends at the airport.

The daughter of Herbert Kittridge Watson of Worcester, Massachusetts, Beverly has attended the New England Conservatory of Music and Designers Art school, both in Boston.

Following a career as a singer in both the United States and South America, the bride-elect established a business in Menlo Park. Beverly is also soloist with an MP church.

Her fiance is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Harold A. LeSieur Sr. of Los Angeles. He studied for a Bachelor's and a Master's degree in chemical engineering at the University of Southern California, and served as engineering officer in the navy during World War II.

Prior to his recent entrance in the Stanford Graduate school of Business, Hal was employed as research project chemical engineer at the American Potash and Chemical corporation, Trona, California.

Mrs. LeSieur's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Grant L. Chapin (Rebecca Jane Watson) were to fly west for the wedding, in which they were to take part. Plans for their trip have not been changed, however, and the newlyweds expect them for Thanksgiving dinner and a celebration.

WED IN MENLO PARK

CPL. AND MRS. JOHN ELWOOD, JR., are pictured at the Allied Arts guild, where they were married November 8. The newlywed Mrs. Elwood is the former Rayna Carol Sharp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Sharp of Palo Alto. Her husband is the son of the senior Mr. and Mrs. Elwood of Atherton. Following their honeymoon, the couple will take up residence in Oceanside.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. Kennedy Will Address Mothers

Mothers from St. Joseph's school will meet this afternoon at 1:15 p.m. to hear the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edwin J. Kennedy present a Thanksgiving theme, followed by a display of fashions sewn by the upper grade girls.

The girls, under the direction of Mother McCarthy, St. Joseph's principal, now have their first sewing class at the school.

'Dames Section Tonight

Tonight at 8 p. m., the arts and crafts section of the Stanford Dames will meet in the lower lounge of the Women's clubhouse on campus. Ned Griffin from a gift store will demonstrate floral arrangements and gift wrappings for the coming Holidays.

No reservations are required for the session, and refreshments will be served by Mrs. Leo Beigenzahn.

Chi O's Name Hostesses for Dec. 'Caravan'

Names of Chi Omega alumnae who will hostess the December 3 Christmas caravan have been announced this week by Mrs. Frederick H. Hawkins of Woodside.

Mrs. Allen Charles, with her daughter, Nina, and a group of Nina's Stanford classmates will be on hand—the latter to serve tea in the James Arnotts' guest house. Stanford coeds include Jane Brabyn, Janet Cline, Martha Nell Tucker and Cynthia Kiser.

Hostesses to greet guests in the various Menlo Park and Atherton homes will be Mrs. William Leigh Bartlett, Mrs. Malcolm Paterson, Mrs. Robert Saxe, Mrs. D. L. Hills, Mrs. William F. Horn.

Mrs. Oscar Holmes, Mrs. H. K. Schultz, Mrs. Fielding McDearmon, Mrs. Thomas Shreve, Mrs. Edward Burke, Mrs. Donald Hutton, Mrs. Mrs. William Price, Mrs. Frederick Fuhrman, Mrs. William S. Best and Mrs. Keith Rogers.

Mrs. Thomas Morris of Los Altos heads the arrangements committee, assisted by Mrs. Alden Herbert and Mrs. R. H. Buckles, both of Menlo Park.

The alumnae's caravan, destined to embark from 2:30 p. m. to 5:30 p. m. and from 7 p. m. to 9:30 p. m., will tour area homes of Mr. and Mrs. Sam D. Thurman Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Pabst, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Badger and Mr. and Mrs. Arnott.

Decorators bestowing a different Holiday theme to each of the above homes will include Chi O's Mrs. W. R. Caldwell of Saratoga, Mrs. Herbert Ormsby and Mrs. Jessie Burbank of Palo Alto. Mrs. E. P. Hunt of Palo Alto will also lend her talents.

Tickets for the Christmas season house tour may be obtained either at the door or through local alumnae members.

Mrs. William King Wields Inaugural Brentwood Gavel

Mrs. William King, charter president-elect of Brentwood P-TA, received her gavel and the P-TA's charter Tuesday night from Mrs. George Andreason, who represented the Seventeenth District CCPT at its newest member's first session.

A graduate of Sequoia high school, Mrs. King, her husband and two sons have lived in the East Palo Alto area for three years. Both King boys, Billy, 8, and Jimmy, 6, are attending Brentwood school — third and second grade respectively.

Mrs. King, in her capacity as the infant P-TA's first head, stated that she hopes to make her organization a hundred per cent active one. Since she and her co-officers are young matrons new to P-TA work, they will be striving doubly hard—with the help of "old hands" —to make Brentwood successful.

Rounding out the roster of charter officers Tuesday night were:

Sherman Garber, principal, honorary vice president; Mrs. J. Yamakoshi, vice president; Mrs. Kenneth Hatt, recording secretary; Mrs. Ralph Johnson, corresponding secretary; Ms. Thomas Lockhard, financial secretary.

Mrs. Ralph Meyer, historian; Peter Mansen, auditor; Mrs. Jack Denton, parliamentarian.

In behalf of Ravenswood P-TA, Mrs. Charles Grover presented Brentwood with the $91 plus raised during the recent joint-school salvage drive. Also, classrooms leading in salvage collection were awarded special prizes by new president Mrs. King.

Other business taken up included a report by the bylaws committee (Mrs. Denton, Mrs. Glenn Palmer and Richard Westfall) and a report from the nominating committee (Mrs. Hatt, Mrs. Meyer, Mrs. King, Mr. Garber and Mrs. Mary Winter).

Second grade teachers Miss Eleanor Cooper and Miss Marjorie Peterson with second grade room mothers Mrs. H. French, Mrs. H. L. North, Mrs. Henry Jenkins and Mrs. John Fanzoni served refreshments following the meeting.

MILLS COUNCIL DELEGATES

GAVE REPORT—Mrs. John Sebastian II (left), Mrs. Robert Nadeau (middle), both of Menlo Park, and Mrs. Wallace Anderson (right) of Woodside, reported last week on the recent Mills college Alumnae council. The roundup was given at a luncheon session for local Mills graduates. Mrs. Anderson is national vice president of the Alumnae association, while Mrs. Nadeau and Mrs. Sebastian are officers of the Palo Alto Mills club.

Oak Knoll Launches SHIRT CAMPAIGN

Junior fashion plates—male and female—from Oak Knoll's sixth grade were spotted on Tuesday wearing the latest in school attire, sweat shirts and "T" shirts bearing an oak tree and the inscription, "Oak Knoll".

This "sneakers" preview presages the opening of a fortnight sale of the shirts, continuing from next Monday, November 24, to December 1. Orders for the apparel, ranging in sizes from 6 to 16, will be taken through P-TA representatives, and will be sent in the first of next month.

Chairman of the sale is Mrs. George Ford, assisted by room mothers and "T" shirt delegates from each classroom.

Parents, incidentally, were given a preview of the school-spirited clothing modelled at last night's P-TA meeting by Bonnie Bryson, Sally Bischpater, Barbara Buckholtz, Don Yaggy and Mike Mallin.

Peninsulites Schedule Tuesday Dance in MP

Young adults from this area have been invited by the Peninsulites, young people's group of the Peninsula Jewish community center, to attend their Turkey Trot dance on Tuesday, November 25, at Temple Beth Jacob in Menlo Park.

The program will include entertainment and refreshments, in addition to social dancing, according to the president, Lou Fisher.

Westminster Women Will Elect Officers At Today's Session

All members and prospective members of the Westminster women's association of the Menlo Park Presbyterian church are urged to attend today's luncheon meeting at 12:30 p. m. in Fellowship hall.

Prospective members need not have made previous reservations.

Primary reason for request of all-out attendance is the annual election of officers and drawing of circles. Installation of officers will take place in January.

Miss Mary Brown, new director of Christian education, will lead the devotionals and will later show a series of slide films. Prior to her coming to this area, Miss Brown spent a number of years aiding migratory workers.

Also on the afternoon program will be a one act play, entitled "Grandma Kindles the Fire", presented by Mrs. William Wilker's speech class. The cast includes Mrs. D. O. Johnson, Mrs. Elton Dodge, Mrs. E. H. Kuper, Mrs. Olding and Mrs. McIntyre, with Mrs. J. R. Sweet providing the narration.

RAVENSWOOD P-TA executive board will hold their next regular meeting Tuesday, November 25, at 8 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Eugene Rumpell, 2145 Euclid avenue.

Local Scouts Attend Meet

Seven delegates from this area attended the inspiring Girl Scout regional conference held Wednesday through Friday last week in Fresno.

Local representatives included Mrs. Joseph Sherk, Menlo-Atherton district chairman; Mrs. Donald Newport, Menlo - Atherton chairman-elect for 1953; Mrs. Willard Dixon, leader of Troop 143 and Mrs. Edwin Edwards, leader of Wing Troop 6 (Blue Angels), accompanied by Wing Scout Ann Arnold of Woodside, Ranger trooper Lucille (Lou) Schmitz and Mariner trooper Debbie Deutermann.

According to Mrs. Edwards, the conference theme of "a growing force for freedom" gave her a real impression of the worldwide Scout movement, a feeling that girls in representative countries were building for future peace.

As a result of the regional gathering and addresses, Mrs. Edwards plans to present the Girl Scout movement in international scope to her troop as part of a future program.

More than 75 per cent of the total GS councils in Region 12 and 16 lone troop communities were represented at the conference.

These 829 registered delegates heard keynote speeches by Mrs. Alan H. Means, chairman of the world committee of the world association Girl Guides and Girl Scouts and Miss Dorothy Stratton, national executive director of Girl Scouts of the USA and former SPARS director.

Other speakers included Dr. Tully Knoles, chancellor of COP, and Miss Kathleen Hill, national commissioner of Brownies for the guides association of South Africa.

Among the new regional committee officers named was Mrs. David D. Bohannon of Woodside, "godmother" of Woodhaven Scout camp.

LITTLE HOUSE

Today Closes Xmas Bazaar

Activities at Little House have been postponed today, since the three-day annual Christmas bazaar is still in progress. Hours for the event are 12 noon to 5 p. m., and address is 930 Santa Cruz avenue.

The bazaar merchandise, created throughout the year by senior citizen members of the facility, was planned especially for Yuletide-gift-minded persons.

Some of the stock includes wistful monkeys, soft yarn baby toys (or "rah rah" animals for coeds), handwoven stoles, colorful appliqued fire mits, decorative place mats, framed paintings, felt baby shoes, knitted sweaters and puckish-looking hobby horses.

On Friday, the calendar resumes, and the 2 p. m. crafts class will be held. In the evening at 7 p. m. members will look to the cards—bridge and canasta—to be followed by refreshments.

* * * *

Tuesday's schedule includes sewing and art classes at 1 p. m., while the Wednesday pot-luck luncheon, followed by an afternoon of card-playing rounds out mid-week activities.

* * * *

Little House is a recreation and service center sponsored by the Peninsula Volunteers for men and women fifty years of age or older. Further information on the facility may be had by calling DA 3-1787.

National AOPi Head Visits the Peninsula

Local area Alpha Omicron Pi alumnae, including Mrs. William E. Kratt of Atherton, were on hand last week to greet their national president from Louisiana, Mrs. Edmond E. Talbot.

Mrs. Talbot was official guest of the San Jose State college chapter house, but was also entertained by alumnae from the peninsula. A special luncheon was held Thursday in the president's honor at the St. Claire hotel, San Jose.

Alpha Omicron Pi alumnae, under Mrs. Talbot's leadership, have three philanthropic undertakings: support of the social service department for a nursing organization in the Kentucky hills; feeding of children in Europe under direction of the American Friends and special project, Ruby Fund.

'Charm School' Meeting

"Charm School" was the interesting theme of Tuesday night's meeting of the Menlo-Atherton branch of the American association of University women, held in the Woodside Hills home of Mrs. Herman Smith Jr.

Guests were given an evaluation of their personality and wardrobe problems, in an attempt to carry out the goal, "let's get acquainted" by learning about themselves.

Mrs. Virginia Scheier Is Named As New Director of Little House

By PROXY

Little House, as of Tuesday, has a new director . . . the Peninsula Volunteers, Inc., has announced the appointment of Mrs. Virginia Scheier of Woodside Heights to the post, replacing Gertrude Moore.

Mrs. Scheier is a graduate of Stanford university, and has done post-graduate work in psychology at Columbia university . . . she worked with the Sequoia chapter of the American Red Cross for ten years . . . having been vice chairman of the volunteer service bureau of the organization during World War II.

A personal introduction to the new Little House director may be made by attending the annual bazaar there, which ends today.

Nutrition Discussed At Rainy-Day Meeting Held by Lomitas P-TA

"Nutrition and the Elementary School Child" was discussed last Thursday by Miss Dorothy Nyhus, guest speaker at the Las Lomitas P-TA meeting. Miss Nyhus is a nutrition consultant with the California state department of health.

Necessity for the basic seven foods (leafy green and yellow vegetables; fortified butter and margarine; citrus fruits; meats; potatoes and other vegetables; eggs and milk among others) was stressed by the speaker.

She emphasized the fact that milk —because of its calcium supply— is the only food for which a parent should not find a replacement. In addition, she outlined protein requirements for both children and adults.

At the P-TA board meeting, funds were appropriated for a retaining wall, to be built before the outside amphitheater stage, and for planting. Graduation exercises are planned for this area come June, and a three-dimensional model of the entire outdoor plan was displayed by John Worsley, Las Lomitas parent and Stanford instructor.

Refreshments after the session were served by sixth grade room mothers, under the direction of Mrs. Burke Mitchell and Mrs. Alta Moore.

February 17 Date Set For League Style Show

The date of February 17 has been set by members of the Junior League of San Francisco for their annual spring fashion show and tea. The affair, general chairman Mrs. Richard Oddie announced yesterday, will take place at 3 p. m. in the Palace hotel.

TEENAGE TALK . . . .

By MELINDA PERCY

"Kick-off Kapers", given at Menlo-Atherton for the football team, was held last Saturday evening with the high point of the dance being the coronation of the Football Queen, Jolly Ann Hospers. Jolly and her two attendants, Sue Leusley and Judy Phillips, were crowned by co-captains Jim Fernandez and Don Stansfield.

Members of the social board who worked on the dance along with Bethy Mosher, commish of social activities, were Mardy Keyes and Sue Furbush, orchestra and tickets; Nancy Roselyn, Emily Arnold and Beth Rahe, publicity and refreshments; and Laura Meredith, Libby Matas, Page Godbe, Margie Kriz, Lois McKenna, Georgialee Gayer and John Ferguson, decorations and clean-up.

* * * *

Before the dance, a surprise dinner party was given for Jan Heter, a new gal at M-A this year who was recently elected vice-prexy of the junior class. The occasion, of course, was Jan's birthday.

It was also revealed at the party that it was Pete Brock's birthday, too, so he celebrated by having a group of friends over to his home after the dance for more dancing and fellowship.

Present at Jan's were Ron Williams, Dick Lewis, Carol Boorman, Kirby Wilkins, Emily Arnold, Rick Searles, Sanny Loofbourow, Jim Bush, Mary Healy, Bernie Bruce, Julie Hartington, Pete Brock, Sue Stolp, Pim Beckman, Melinda Percy, Dave Young, Pat Bogue, Jim Fernandez, Jolly Hospers, Dave Easley, Mardy Keyes and Jim Symons.

* * * *

A busy one for dances was last weekend, as the Deep Peninsula Informals were held Friday night at the Menlo Circus Club. The many localites who attended the dance termed it "lots of fun."

Among those present from M-A were Mary Livingston, Angele Bowen, Ginger Hedge, Delores Cottrell, Cathy Petersen, Bill Mills, Sue Severin, Steve West, John Walling, Bob McGee, Howard White, Jackie Pratt, Judy Phillips, Bethy Mosher, Susan Cook, Jack Demorest, Beth Rahe, Nancy Roselyn, Caryl Clark, Sukie Donald, Louise Starkey.

* * * *

More dinner parties! Before this dance Sue Stolp and Dan Varty had a few friends over for "eats" at their respective homes. Sue invited Bill Mills, Sue Severin, Glenda Spears, Don McLean and Pete Brock, while Dan entertained Marilyn Menzin, Dave Easley, Mardy Keyes, Rick Searles and Miriam Waggennen.

* * * *

Another active organization at M-A is the Forsenic club, or better known to most people as the Debate club. The members journeyed to Modesto high school last Saturday to enter the Modesto experimental speech tournament and they placed very well, with several students making the semi-finals.

Those who made the semi-finals were Rick Betts in impromptu, Josephine Booth in serious reading and Eugene Polnianov in progressive discussion. Other members of the group who made the trip were Bill Boorman, Lynne Mokler and Phil Roos.

* * * *

What's a wonderful way to spend an evening? The teeners who belong to St. Raymond's church Youth club thought it would be fun to go roller skating recently and Bill Walsh, Henry Baier, Marty Weiss, Joe O'Halloran, Robin Moseley, Paul Spicer, Barbara Schenkle, John Durrant, Molly Boyd, Bob Jones, Carole Borrmann, Bob Spicer and Cathy Treagle discovered what fun it is.

Newly-elected officers of the club are president, Jolly Hospers; vice-president, John Morey; secretary, Gail Derry; and treasurer, John Durrant.

* * * *

Want to give a different kind of party? Why not do as Sue Leusley did and have a "paint my room" get-together? Seven gals wound up looking rather "blue" but had loads of fun; guess what color Sue's room is? Blue! The painters ncluded Nancy Roselyn, Nancy Brooks, Barbara Curtis, Joan Hudson, Judy Knudsen and Lois McKenna.

Holy Trinity Auxiliary Te See Film on Alaska

A luncheon meeting of the Women's auxiliary of Holy Trinity Episcopal church has been planned for today at the parish house. Preceding the luncheon will be a service of Holy Communion.

Highlight of the afternoon is a film entitled "Light of the North", depicting the work of the church in Alaska, and a report on the Triennial convention of the church—held this year in Boston—by Mrs. Sanborn Backus.

Luncheon hostesses are Mrs. G. Jacobus, chairman, assisted by Mrs. A. S. Robinson, Mrs. Edwin Brooks and Mrs. Bruce Walcher.

Will Gather for Lunch

Local members of the San Mateo county dental auxiliary are reminded of the luncheon meeting today at 12:30 p. m. in Casa Mateo Inn. The year's second business session will be followed by an afternoon of card playing.

Anyone desiring a table of bridge or canasta is requested to bring her own cards, and reservations for the meeting may be made in this area by calling Mrs. A. Corbett this morning at DA 3-6657.

SERVICE CLUB MEET

Its monthly dessert meeting will be held Tuesday, November 25, by members of the Women's Service club. The 12:30 p. m. session is set for the Peninsula Jewish community center, 970 Commercial road, San Carlos.

Garden Section Sets Thanksgiving Table

Representing the garden section of the Menlo Park Women's club, Mrs. Edwin Sawtelle and Mrs. Sarah Farmer have created a rich and colorful Thanksgiving table setting for exhibit this week at the Allied Arts guild—noted especially at the guild's open house last night.

Focal point of the table decor is a large wooden bowl filled with rust-colored chrysanthemums from Mrs. Farmer's garden. Clustered around the bowl are a varnished and highly polished group of everyday fruits and vegetables.

The decorative potables include Bermuda onions, cranberries, oranges, apples, potatoes and bananas—also acorns. Walnuts, also with a high lustre, manipulated into simulated grape clusters, and autumn leaves created from sheets of brass lend an air of imagination to the all.

Two other parts of the decor, also fashioned by Mrs. Sawtelle, are the miniature Puritan hats sprinkled amongst the vegetables and fruits, and individual favors representing tiny burlap sacks wearing gold lettered name cards.

Dinnerware, stemware and place mats, too, were chosen with an eye toward Thanksgiving authenticity. Place mats are "ginger spice", while the china is an English crusted variety rich in autumn colors. Silverware is the puritan-simple "fiddle thread."

The "Alta California" was the state's first daily newspaper.

BPW Will Continue Federation Talk; Projects December Party

Members of the Menlo Park Business and Professional Women's club have been advised to set aside the evening date of December 9 for a big "surprise" party, chairmanned by Barbara Moose, and assisted by zealous committee.

Also on the calendar for local BPW's is the regular meeting scheduled for Tuesday, November 25. The session—to be a dessert rather than a dinner— will be held in the 248 Lennox avenut home of Gladys McKenna, Menlo Park.

Lois Goodrich is in charge of the evening's program, which will feature a "fireside" panel discussion on the federation program. Members are requested not to bring guests, so as to save the walls from bursting.

The meeting's panel will continue discussion on the national federation program and legislative platform, which has been the subject of the program for the past two meetings.

Especially interesting to members attending the last meeting at Marie Antoinette was the talk of the equal rights amendment, presented pro and con by Miss Dorothy Gray and Mrs. Landis Weaver, respectively.

The national program and legislative platform are planned and devoted to working for the advancement of women and the use of women's full capacity as citizens.

The MP club is informing itself on subjects including the equal rights amendment, jury service, equal pay for equal work and removal of and prevention of discrimination on basis of ages, sex or marital status.

Still another BPW project on tap is the early 1953 rummage sale. Anyone with merchandise and no place to store it may call Margaret Ritchey, who has offered her basement for that purpose.

New members welcomed recently to the MP club include Mrs. Dorel Hottinger, beauty salon owner; Mrs. Hazel Gomes, fiber flower teacher; Miss Sara Lee Cinegram, bank teller; Mrs. Ella F. McManus, co-partner with Mrs. Gomes in fiber flower teaching; Mrs. Jewell E. Kreifel, her first name tells the tale; and Betty Cushman, bank employe.

Local Delegation

Mrs. Mary Van Mourit, as official delegate, represented the Palo Alto Temple 70, Pythian Sisters on Tuesday at the district convention of the order in San Jose. Several other local members were also on hand to greet Grand Chief Myrtle Hifgen, who had come to this area for inspection of initiatory ceremonies.

EPA Exchange

Today is the day set for the fall opening of the East Palo Alto Wardrobe Exchange, a "trading post" for outworn clothing, sponsored by the P-TA's of Belle Haven, Ravenswood and Willow schools.

Hours scheduled are 1 p. m. to 4 p. m., and the place is the new annex to the 550 Bell street Ravenswood Recreation center. Old clothing, rubbers, shoes and other items will be welcomed at the facility, since its former stock was lost through storage mishap.

If pick-up is desired, the following women will be glad to assist: Mrs. G. R. Kowalski, DA 3-2245; Mrs. Robert L. Anway, DA 3-4632; Mrs. Pete N. Govorko, DA 3-2045

"Money I can depend on . . ."

'Before the cannery came to town, I could never tell what I was going to get for a crop until I took it to market.

"And lots of seasons my stuff was past its prime before I could find a market.

"Now, everything I grow goes to the cannery. It brings in an income that I can depend on, year after year."

The high-speed precision manufacture of modern food-containers, and the development of canning techniques for almost any food you can name, has created a world-wide market for what California grows. This has stabilized farm income, converted barren acres into productive land.

For more than fifty years, American Can Company has been helping the California canning industry widen markets for California fruits, vegetables and other products.

The better we as a nation produce, the stronger we grow.

Our work here—making containers and helping industry use them—is a good example of how a nationwide business can bring its services to bear at the local level, increasing income all along the line.

Ann Crandall Is Wed

Four bridesmaids frocked in coronation red preceded Ann Crandall down the aisle of All Saints Episcopal church in Palo Alto last Sunday, when she became the bride of George Holman Bingham.

Ann, who was given away in marriage by her uncle, Kenneth Hartley Crandall of Piedmont, is the daughter of Mrs. Richard Robbins Crandall of Menlo Park and Pasadena and the late Mr. Crandall. Her hsuband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph V. Bingham, Portland, Oregon.

A full-length gown of delustered satin and French imported Chantilly lace was chosen by the bride for her wedding. The dress was fashioned with tight lace bodice and panels of lace down the front and back, the latter ending in a chapel-length train.

A fingertip veil of Chantilly lace and a spray of lilies-of-the-valley completed the bridal ensemble.

Maid-of-honor, as well as soloist for the ceremony, was Judy Holland of Pasadena. The bridesmaids included Nancy Cord of Beverly Hills, a Stanford classmate of the bride; Mrs. William Bernard Imholt Jr. (Carol Anne Blackmore), cousin of the bride; and Dorothy (Dodie) Eingham, the bridegroom's sister.

WHAT THEY WORE

All attendants wore bouffant frocks of irridescent taffeta, fashioned with tight bodices, portrait necklines, unpressed pleated skirts and cummerbund sashes reaching to the hemlines.

Over their arms, the honor and bridesmaids carried bouquets of American Beauty roses.

From the church, guests drove to a late afternoon reception held in the Marie Antoinette hotel, Menlo Park. Ann, dressed in a tailored taupe-colored suit, and her husband left afterwards on a destination undisclosed wedding trip.

Following the honeymoon, the newlywed Binghams will make their home in Paso Robles near Camp Roberts, where the bridegroom is stationed as lieutenant with the army.

AT THE 'FARM'

Ann completed her third year at Stanford university; prior to entering Stanford, she had attended Westridge school for girls in Pasadena. George also studied at Stanford, having received his degree in history this June; his preparatory education was conducted at Andover.

An affiliate of Beta Theta Pi on Stanford campus, the bridegroom chose three fraternity brothers, Richard Faville, David Hill and John Rivenburgh, as ushers. Best man was George's brother, William, from Portland and the bride's brother, Bradford (Brad) Gove Crandall, served as fourth usher.

Two pre-nuptial parties last weekend honored the young couple. Nancy Cord hostessed a dinner dance Friday night at the Bel Aire for the bridal party, and the bridegroom's parents honored their son and daughter-in-law at a wedding rehearsal dinner Saturday night.

MP Woman Presides Over District Meet

Mrs. Albert Roney of Menlo Park presided over a meeting of the southern counties district of Junior Women's clubs yesterday evening at Salinas. Business included a report by Mrs. J. H. Gray Jr. on the Palo Alto "Juniors" and a discussion of current events.

Tonight at 8 p. m. members of the American home section of the PA Junior women's club will meet in the Menlo Park home of Mrs. Burt C. Kendall. Roy Garrity will display Christmas decorations for the home and Mrs. Brown Taylor will serve refreshments.

Belle Haven Plans:

RUMMAGE SALE

Belle Haven P-TA is planning a rummage sale for this Saturday, November 22, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. in the empty store on Newbridge and Willow road.

Overall chairman for the fund-raising event is Mrs. M. A. Ross, ways and means chairman, assisted by Mrs. Edward Knight and other members of the P-TA.

Anyone wishing to donate rummage for the sale is urged to contact Mrs. Ross at DA 3-2902, and she will take care of pick-up, if needed.

Encinal P-TA Will Go 'Behind Scenes' Today

Parents of Encinal schoolchildren are reminded that this afternoon at 2:30 p. m. a meeting of the parent-teacher association will be held to learn "What the P-TA Really Does."

The program is to comprise a roundtable discussion between parent board members and their student counterparts. Under discussion will be traffic safety, publicity, sports, health and welfare, and cooperation between students and parents.

Questions from the floor will also be an integral part of the session, according to planners, Mrs. Milton Silverman, program chairman, and Mrs. Raymond Peters, P-TA president.

In addition, Mrs. Peters will report on the results of this year's membership drive directed by Mrs. George Keeler. Three classes, both third grades and one sixth grade, reached their "hundred per center" goal, including fathers, as well as mothers.

Second place honors were won by the fifth and another sixth grade class, with totals of 93 per cent. All in all, 443 parents out of 543 can now claim P-TA membership at Encinal.

Unitarian Alliance Will Hear Reports

The Unitarian Women's alliance will meet tonight at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. E. M. Davidove, 1278 Santa Cruz avenue.

Mrs. Warren Hall and Mrs. Adelaide Sedgley, delegates to the national conference of the General alliance of Unitarian and other Liberal Christian women at Asilomar and to the conference of the associate alliance of Northern California at Sacramento will report on these two meetings.

MARY-MARTHA GUILD

This evening Mrs. Roy Ausland will play hostess to the Mary-Martha guild of Bethany Lutheran church at her home, 712 Harvard avenue. Officers for the coming year will be elected. Mrs. W. P. Fehring will preside.

BABY SITTER EXCHANGE

Menlo-Atherton branch members of AAUW interested in baby sitting and baby sitters are urged to call Mrs. C. J. Wood Jr., DA 5-1739.

MP Branch to Be Reception Scene For Librarians

A reception for librarians that have recently joined the staff of the San Mateo county library will be held at the Menlo Park branch library, 631 Menlo avenue on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 23 from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m.

Miss Joan Rucker, recently graduated from the school of librarianship at the University of California who joined the Menlo Park branch this fall, will be among those honored. She has started a survey of the books, to more thoroughly comprehend the needs for a more varied selection of books and ascertain the needs for special services. The town's growth makes the survey necessary.

Mrs. Marion Garthwaite, also a resident of Menlo Park, and author of "Shaken Days," a story for boys and girls about the tragic weeks that followed the earthquake and fire of 1906, has been named head of children's work for the San Mateo county library.

This author's career has included many years of work in libraries, but she also has found time to write short stries for young people's magazines, as well as publish a tale about the Spanish-Indian period of California days, which she called "Tomas and the Red Headed Angel."

This book received the Julia Ellsworth Ford Foundation prize in 1950 and a citation as the outstanding book of the year for young people by the Commonwealth Club of San Francisco.

Original copies of the illustrations for several of her stories will be on exhibition at the library during the reception.

Mrs. Vera Johnson and Mrs. Lorraine Glunz of this branch and members of the San Mateo county library staff at Redwood City join in urging all friends of libraries to attend this open house next Sunday afternoon.

Essayist to Get 'Mention' Award

Mickey Singer, whose essay, "Why I Want To Own My Own Home" won the Menlo-Atherton Real Estate Board's essay contest earlier this year, is to be awarded an "honorable mention" trophy which the same essay earned in statewide competition.

The presentation is to be made at the Board of Realtors' regular luncheon meeting Dec. 1. Singer has graduated from the high school, and is now attending San Jose State college.

Announcement of the award was made at a recent San Francisco convention of the California Real Estate association, attended by Charles Andrews, president of the Menlo-Atherton unit.

Singer's award will be a miniature of that given to Rose Ann Wood of Long Beach, whose essay dealing with the same topic, won the state award.
